To Kellie,

Hey chick! Well the year is just about over. Next year we will be sophomores and not the scums of the school. YAY! I hope you have a real nice summer! Don't get burned too much cuz you'll turn into a lobster. It is real nice to have you as a friend and be bored with me and everyone else in Moormans. Well chick I'll

Hi! How are things going with you? They going okay for me. I hope you have a great summer because you are a great friend and aunt. I think we will have a great summer because we are going up to Mike's house and we going to camp. Plus I will have my birthday up there? Then we will party all summer long. I sure hope me and you both get a summer love. maybe me and Carlos will get together. He is cute huh? ^{you} I think we make a good couple? I sure hope so because so far I think we get along good. oh well? I won't talk about any guys any more. I am sorry if I wrote to much so far. But you are so cool? so stay cool and don't be a fool? It will be cool next year because we will be sophomores. Then only 2 more years if we don't graduate in the class of

Hi Kellie,

How are you? As for me fine, except on thing. I thought I would have a 3 month vacation, well I have to go to summer school, but I really don't mind to much. Kellie you a wonderful friend ~~to Kellie~~, hope we never become enemies. When I met you in the 7th grade everything was fine, as friendship wise the 8th I don't know what happen. 9th we were even better friends then every I hope we become even better friends and are friendship will keep growing. I hope you have a terrific summer and have fun in the sun. I be cool fool. ^(hahaha) Kellie the reason I like you is because your some what like me, you don't lie, stilt, or smuck on everybody, you are funny, fun to be with, I hope you always stay that way. Kellie if you ever need someone to talk to or need a friend I'll always be there. ^{and} Don't worry, I'll see you in the summer or well see you next year?

3. Bertha: Who me!

1. Up, up and away ...!

2. Trudy: What do I do now?

3. Mr. Scott: Is it halftime yet ...?

FACES ... FACES ...

Probably one of the most noticeable changes at Sierra Vista High was the overwhelming flood of new faces. There was Masuyuki Hirata, an exchange student from Japan, Iris Martinez, a senior from Texas, the Monico brothers (Miguel and Walter) from L.A., and of course the freshmen class. The freshman class consisted of approximately 300 students, the largest class to ever enroll here. When Delcina Colantuono, a senior, was asked to comment on this sudden outburst of freshmen, she stated, "Everywhere you go, all you see is a bunch of 'punk' freshmen hanging around." These were just some of the things which made this generation the NEW GENERATION!!

SPIRIT ... ENTHUSIASM ...

The year was full of spirit and pride. Not only was the spirit high, but all the students showed their energetic feelings through participation in the school's activities.

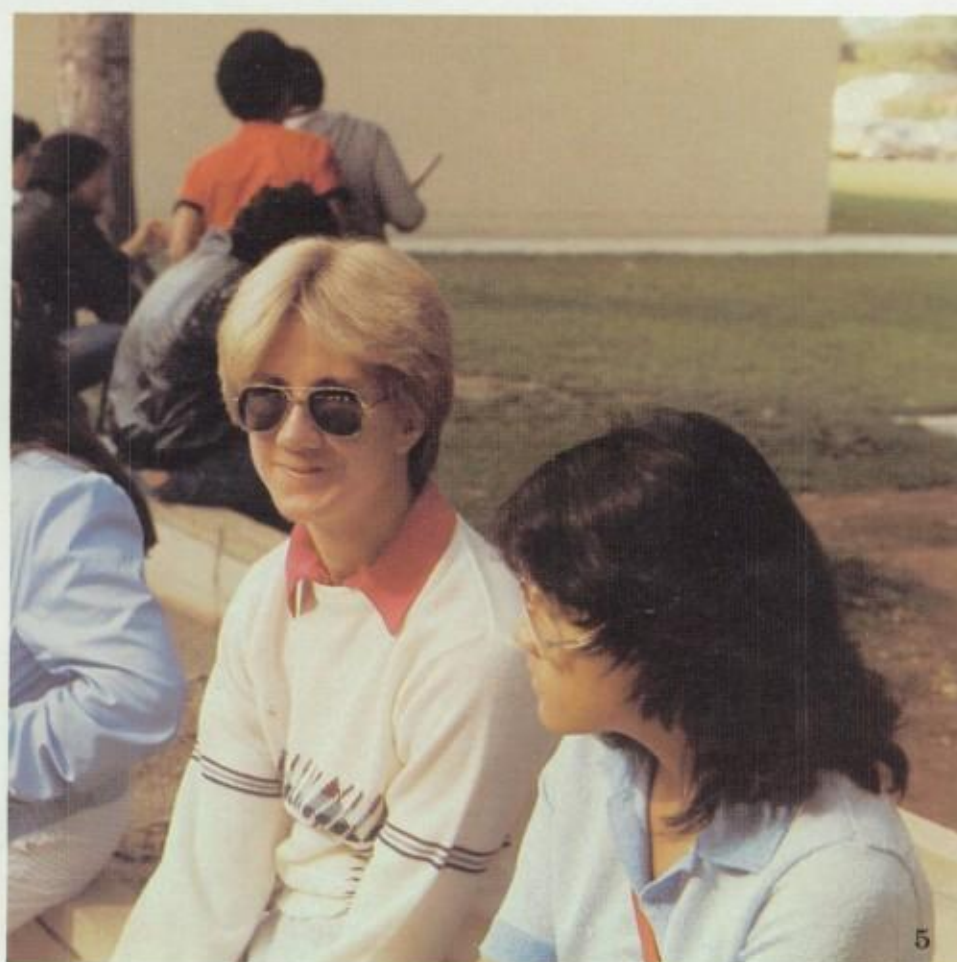

Many students, particularly the freshmen, experienced the fun shared in the school's annual activities, which included: Halloween Dress-Up Day, Donkey Basketball, and other events. All in all, the enthusiasm and spirit of the "DONS" was GREAT!

The class of 1985 will soon be leaving high school and entering a new world. As they go on, they will be striving for new goals in life. As they depart, they will discover many changes — different changes the world is making.

Facing the world will be more stressful than ever due to the fast pace of life set by the computer age. As they face these changes, the senior class will have a greater challenge in life.

When we first set foot on this high school campus, we were introduced to a new environment and a new challenge — the challenge of being the best that you can be. The older generation — the administrators, the faculty, the staff, the counselors and many others helped us to adjust to this new world. They have encouraged us to work harder, try harder, and to reach a higher goal. They have eased the pains of disappointments and have given us a new light of hope. Thank you, older generation, for your inspiration and motivation.

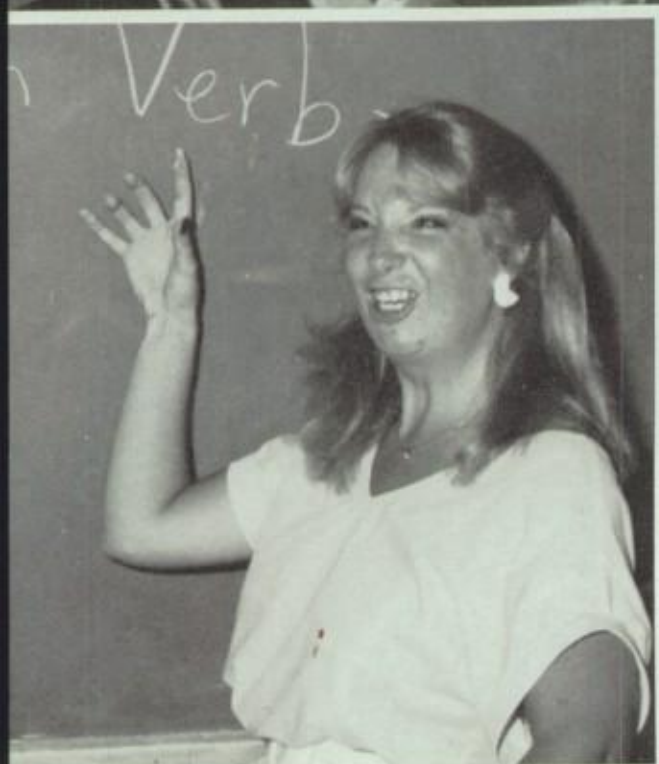

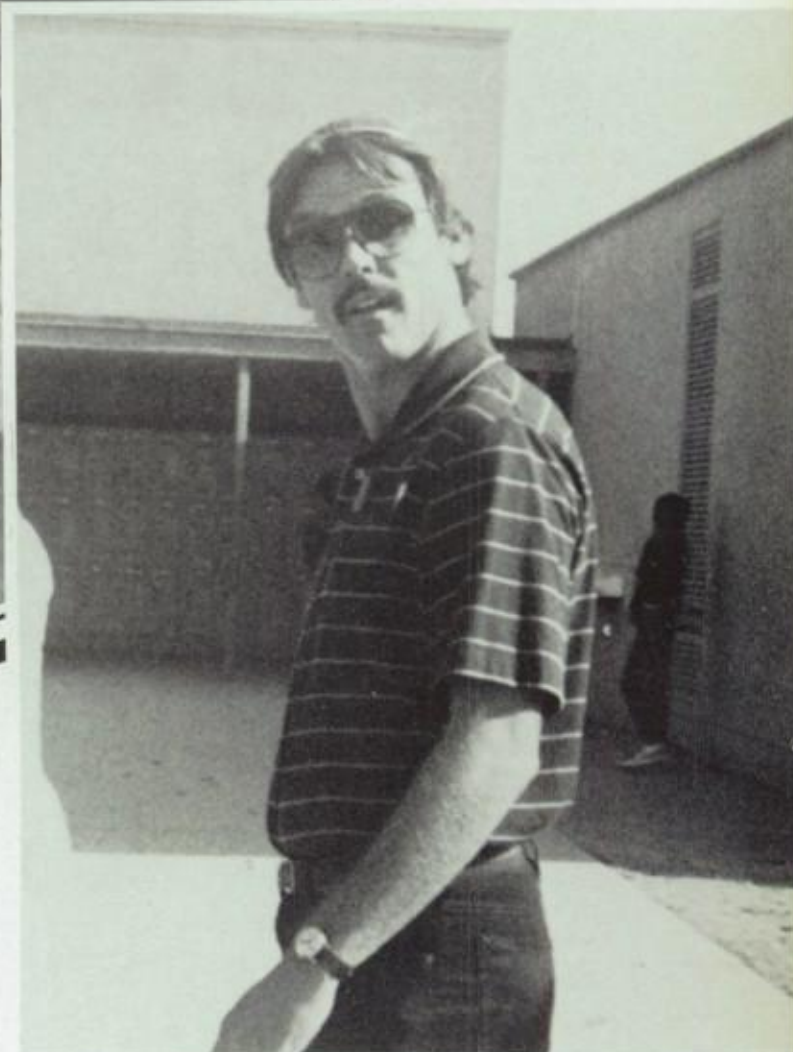

Dear Kellie,

Principal's Message

Is it better to be educated to some extent than not to be educated at all? You will, of course, agree that it is. Then is it not still better to have a better than average education?

To get the greatest value from education, set up for yourself an habitual vision of excellence. Your pursuit of education will lead you into something that is not easy, but, in these days of world uncertainty, it is an advantage to have something significant to do at the expense of thought and energy.

And finally, do not be content with half measures. A writer of seventy-five years ago said: "The good is the enemy of the best." Let's not be content with a second best, though it be good.

Faculty

Throughout our high school years, we were persistently told to set higher goals for ourselves, to work harder in school, and to do the best that we can. Many times we rejected this caring advice, but in the end we tried to listen.

The faculty at Sierra Vista was always willing to help us no matter how much we turned away in defiance. Teaching a group of teenagers is not an easy task, yet these teachers were willing and caring enough to help us. At those times when we felt frustrated and disillusioned, it took the advice and support from our teachers to raise our hopes. They were our friends, as well as our counselors, our advisors, and the providers of our knowledge.

The path to excellence might have been a rockier road without the words of wisdom from the faculty.

What do you like best about teaching here at Sierra Vista?

1. The people I have to work with everyday.

— Anonymous

2. Working with the students who attend SVHS. We have a good group of students here.

— Anonymous

3. I like the Administrators' support to the school and to the faculty. But what I especially like is that the students have been very friendly since the first year I was teaching here.

— Miss De la Rosa

4. The students. 99% of mine are terrific.

— Miss Atchley

5. The students.

— Mr. Cozen

6. When I taught here 12 years ago, I worked with most of the same teachers that are still on the faculty. I think that speaks well of a stable, closely knit group of teachers.

— Mr. Blomberg

7. I love working with the students inside and out of the classroom. I love to watch them grow from young teen-age kids into young 12 grade adults. If it weren't for the students here, I would have left long ago. I like 'em!

— Anonymous

8. The students.

— Mr. Horsley

9. Seeing students improve their self-concept and the resulting progress made in the academic areas.

— Mr. Draper

10. Kids! Students! Young, eager to learn minds! I love 'em all . . . if we can keep their attention!!!

— Anonymous

11. The teachers are friendly and helpful to each other.

What was the most notable change in Sierra Vista since you started teaching?

1. The completion of the football field. — Anonymous

2. The Administrative Staff — they have given the teachers far more support and have made the faculty a more cohesive unit. — Mr. Horsley

3. Discipline seems to have improved since I came here eight years ago. — Miss De la Rosa

4. Getting the boys' sports program back on the winning track. — Anonymous

5. School spirit has increased tremendously!! It's great! — Anonymous

6. This school is becoming more and more academically oriented. — Mr. Cozen

7. Being familiar with the music program, I am impressed with the size of the band now and its ability to do so well in competition. — Mr. Blomberg

8. Several fine young people have improved their perception of the value of their own education while in the alternative class. — Mr. Draper

9. They finally painted the school with a decent color. — Anonymous

What do you think about the fads in school?

1. Kids always like them — so we'll always have them. They are ok as long as they don't get in the way of the first priority of the school — higher learning. — Mr. Draper

2. Great, they breathe life into daily routine. — Anonymous

3. Fads come and go. I enjoy coming to school in September to see what has developed over the summer. — Mr. Horsley

4. Fads come and go: some good — most bad!! — Anonymous

5. Kids have always been involved with fads, but my concern is that the fads of today may lead to a lifestyle that produces a permissive and unproductive society. — Mr. Blomberg

6. I enjoy them. It's fun to see all the different outfits. Some kids look like they're dressed for Halloween everyday. — Anonymous

7. The more things change, the more they remain the same. They're a real part of life for the students and there is nothing wrong with them. — Anonymous

8. Far out. — Miss Atchley

9. I think every generation always brings new changes, although the fads nowadays seem to be a little bit crazier. — Miss De la Rosa

10. The current fads in dress are among the "sloppiest" I've ever seen. Overall, they are fun to observe. — Anonymous

What was the best excuse you've ever heard from a student?

1. When we asked one of our players why he was late to practice, he replied, "Life is so confusing. I'm late because I have been thinking about life." — Anonymous
2. The baby peed on my homework. — Anonymous
3. Ask Ernie Felix — otherwise known as "Mr. Excuse" — Miss Atchley
4. I can't turn in my homework because my father took it with him when he went to Mexico. — Anonymous
5. The dog ate it. — Mr. Draper
6. I can't dress today because my mother is not home. — Anonymous
7. I dropped a can of peaches on my toe and I can't dress for P.E. — Anonymous
8. A student once said that he didn't bring the homework because his dog had chewed part of it. — Miss De la Rosa
9. My dog went to the bathroom on my paper. — Mr. Cozen
10. My homework fell out of my book on the way to school. — Anonymous

What was your most embarrassing moment?

1. A student once asked me what circumsized meant. — Mr. Cozen

2. My most embarrassing moment was about 5 years ago. While I was explaining something to my English class, I fell. Everybody was looking down at me. I was so embarrassed, I didn't know what to do so I just stayed seated which is the way I had fallen. — Miss De la Rosa

3. We had just moved into a new home and didn't have any water yet. I went to a neighbor and borrowed a bucket of water to do the windows. On my way back, I didn't step up high enough to meet the curb. I fell on the ground spilling the bucket of water. — Anonymous

4. My first year of teaching (right out of college) and trying to teach sex education to seniors who were only 5 years younger than myself. — Mr. Horsley

5. As I was lecturing a class, some student passed me a note that said, "Mr. Blomberg, your zipper is down." I looked down and guess what... — Mr. Blomberg

6. I feel like the fairy godmother in the story Cinderella when students, I believe have made positive changes, go back to their "old" ways shortly after returning to regular classes from the alternative class. I wish my "spell" would last longer... ie — four years instead of just a few weeks. — Mr. Draper

7. My most embarrassing moment occurred when a cap on my front tooth fell off during a date and landed on my plate of food. The man I was with never asked me out again. — Miss Atchley

8. Being picked on by a nightclub comedian and having to sing a song with him (I can't sing). — Anonymous

9. — Too embarrassing. Anonymous

10. During a play in high school, I was supposed to gently let the hair down of the leading lady. She played a trick on me and had it pinned up rather tightly — so I gave a pretty good tug and the ball came off completely. — Anonymous

Staff

The senior class of 1985 expresses their gratitude and much deserved appreciation to the staff of Sierra Vista High School for their dedication, involvement, and care of our school. Through the year they have kept up their high standards on our campus and have illustrated to us the importance and necessity of pride. The custodians have provided us with a clean environment from which we can take pride in. The cafeteria staff have provided us with meals throughout the year. The teachers aid have made it less of a burden for our teachers to help us get through high school. Also, our secretaries exemplified the efficiency and quality of our faculty's and administrators needs. For all of this and more, we express our heart felt thanks to the entire staff of S.V.H.S.

Another Action Filled

Day in School

The one big transformation that took place at Sierra Vista was the increase in student enrollment. It was difficult not to be pushed and shoved while going to your locker. The lunch and brunch lines increased tremendously. The younger generation certainly dominated the campus. The biggest class, all was the freshmen class, followed by the sophomore class and then the junior class. What was the advantage of having such a large student body? It was an increase of spirit and enthusiasm of the younger generation!

CLASS OF '86

As the Junior class of '86, we have proved ourselves, once more, as being full of spirit and pride. As incoming freshmen, we grew and brought new life into our school. While sophomores, we were involved in school activities and were always in the midst of the action. Now, as juniors, the class of '86 has got a lot to be proud of and look back on. The memories we've shared will stay in our hearts forever. But, it's not over yet because we've got pep rallies to conquer, dances to enjoy, and books to study. Yes, we do have a wonderful past and we are adding our knowledge of the present so that when the final phase approaches, we will be prepared for the future. Look out everyone! The Class of '86 is coming up.

As this year comes to a slow end, we have taken new responsibilities upon ourselves. We must not only decide upon getting up in the morning and coming to school everyday but, also, what shall become of us after we finally graduate. These are new obstacles that we begin to face. The sophomore class was capable of dealing with these new obstacles. We were not only strong and bold, but also ready to face reality. We grew not only mentally but also physically. We, as sophomores, showed a great deal of spirit and pride among our school. We showed the upperclassmen how successful we could be in competition . . . not just in pep-rallies, but also in the mental aspect. As we go away and return next year as Juniors, we shall be able to progress even more and should be ready for a successful future . . .

Being a "freshmen" is just the beginning of your high school years. Think back to the very first day of school, and how you were so nervous when you heard the first bell ring to go to your first period class. From then on you knew you were part of Sierra Vista High School! You also knew that it would be all up hill from there on and there was no turning back.

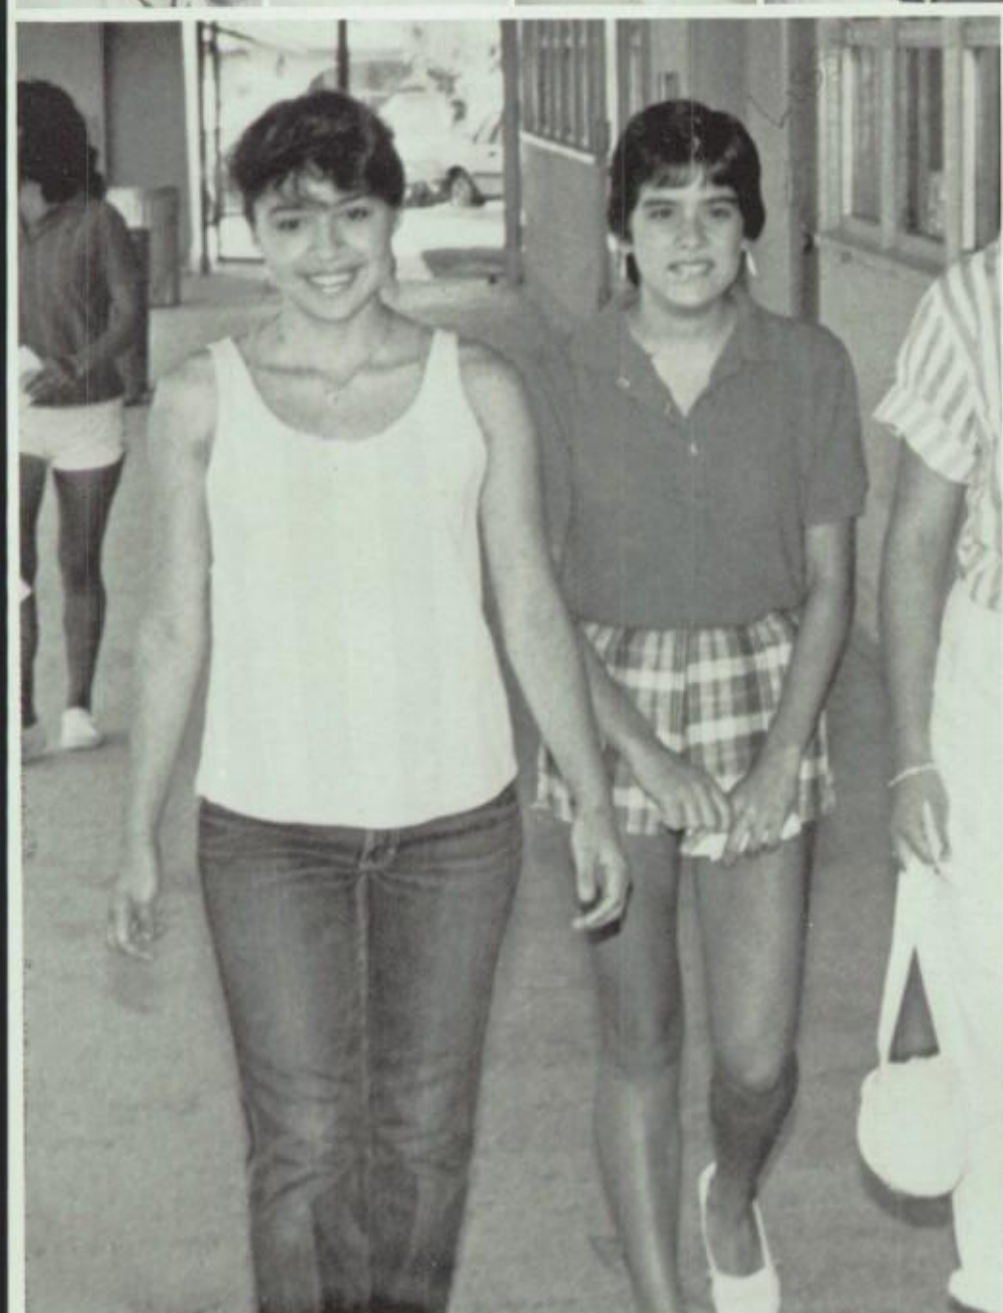

There were also possitive things about High School like dances, games, pep rallies, and how you were now part of them all, all the new people you would also meet. Once you finished your 1st year of high school, you knew there would be many great years to come. But it all would depend on you to make the years to come great. School helped you mature and helped prepare you for your future.

Student life in the S.V.H.S. campus was very lively and full of spirit. There seemed to be a sudden eagerness of the students to express their school pride and enthusiasm. More and more students participated in the class competitions — in which the seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen classes competed for pep points in various activities. These activities ranged from Dress-up Days to Slave Auction Day and from Eating Contests to pep rallies. The students were willing to get involved in many activities to improve and liven the campus' social life.

Years from now, the graduating seniors will look back and realize the importance of the students' involvement and participation to the fun and memorable times of their student life on campus.

What Happened . . .

... In 1984-85?

- Name the singer who "Ain't Missing You?"
- Name the prime minister of England who almost got killed in a bombing accident?

Organizations

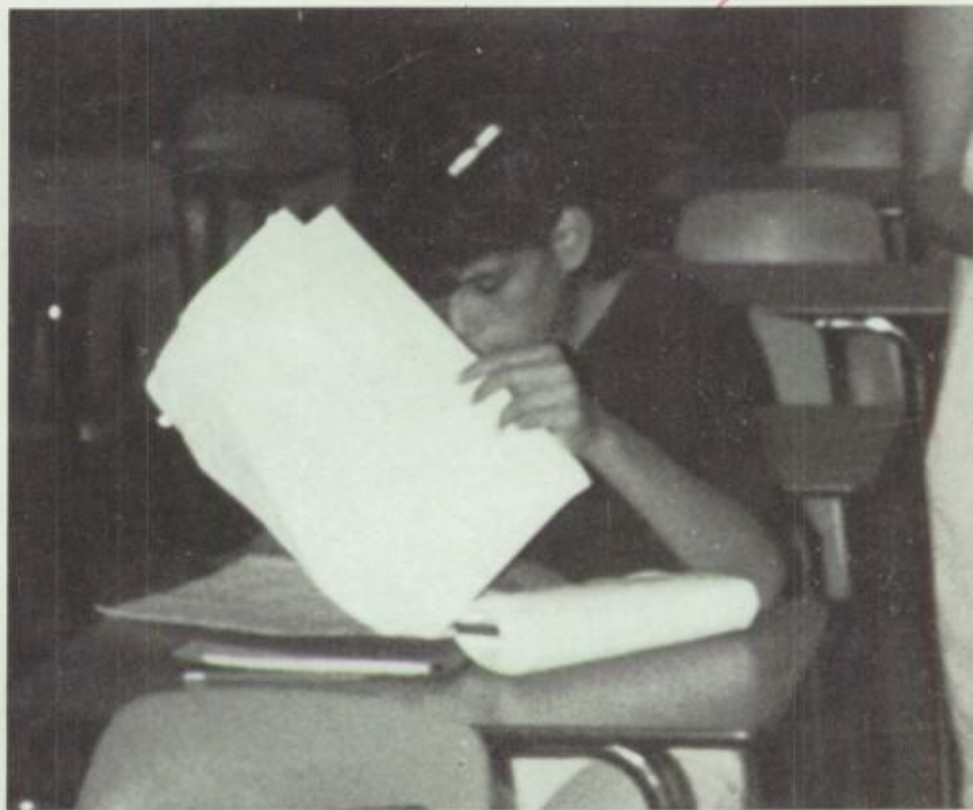

There are about twenty-two organizations at Sierra Vista ranging from the eleven member Chess Club to the one-hundred member band. These organizations offers their members a number of activities such as candy sales, carnation sales, and field trips. In addition, organizations such as the Lettergirls, Big and Little Sisters, and the band often sponsor homecoming princesses every year. Most of these organizations are open to any student who wishes to join. But most of all, they provide plenty of excitement for everyone!

... these are just a few activities that the leadership class, under the guidance of Mr. Klassen and Mrs. Guererro, provided for the students at Sierra Vista. Without these leadership students, we would have not enjoyed such priorities as the Saide Hawkins Dance, Stuffed Animal Days, and of course those exciting pep-rallies. These students are the leaders of our school, and have always represented Sierra Vista in an exemplary manner. Their leadership ability and responsibility went beyond the seven hours of school. For instance, each student in this leadership class took his or her time and effort to go to football games, wrestling matches, and basketball games.

In addition, besides being involved with activities such as the dances, the leadership class also approved proposed candy sales, carnation sales, and other fund raising activities certain clubs want to have. They also attended leadership seminars in order to enhance their leadership ability for the benefit of the school.

To many, winning is the measurement of success. Yet to us, the amount of self-satisfaction we have gotten from our performances as individuals is important, but not entirely vital. For we are one, and what the people see isn't "Roman" or "Alma" or "the last person in the third row." What the people see is Sierra Vista High School. That's why . . . "It's we, not I."

Alma Mater

Sierra Vista alma mater,
We will sing with praise,
All the time that we have cherished,
How we love your name,

When the years have finally ended,
We will have to part,
But you won't be far,
Because you're nearest to our hearts,

With our colors true and mighty,
We could never fail,
For to you we pledge our honor,
Dons to you we hail!

JV Cheer

The 1984-1985 S.V.H.S. Pepsters had a very exciting and accomplished year. They started off this successful year by attending Hibbards All American camp at U.C.L.A. During the first night of competition, both Varsity squads won top honors by winning the spirit jug. In addition, Varsity Cheer placed 2nd, and Varsity Song placed 3rd. The J.V. squad did not compete that evening. But during the next night of competition, the J.V. squad started off by placing 1st, Varsity again placed 2nd, and Varsity Song 3rd. The Pepsters placed 1st as the most improved school. The Pepsters are full of energy and enthusiasm. You can see their spirit everywhere on campus: at pep rallies, football, and basketball games. Yes, our Pepsters had a lot to cheer about. They are the New Generation.

Vocal Ensemble

Although the vocal ensemble was a little known vocal group on campus, it became well known in the community. The group sang for many community affairs as well as vocal festivals around southern California.

The singers were made up of the top vocalists from Sierra Vista High School and Baldwin Park High School. Activities and programs include a Christmas Concert at Sierra Vista H.S., Eastland Shopping Center, SCVA festival attraction, Magic Mountain, Pillow Concert and Baccalaureate. The director was Margaret Barto and the accompanist was John Brunn.

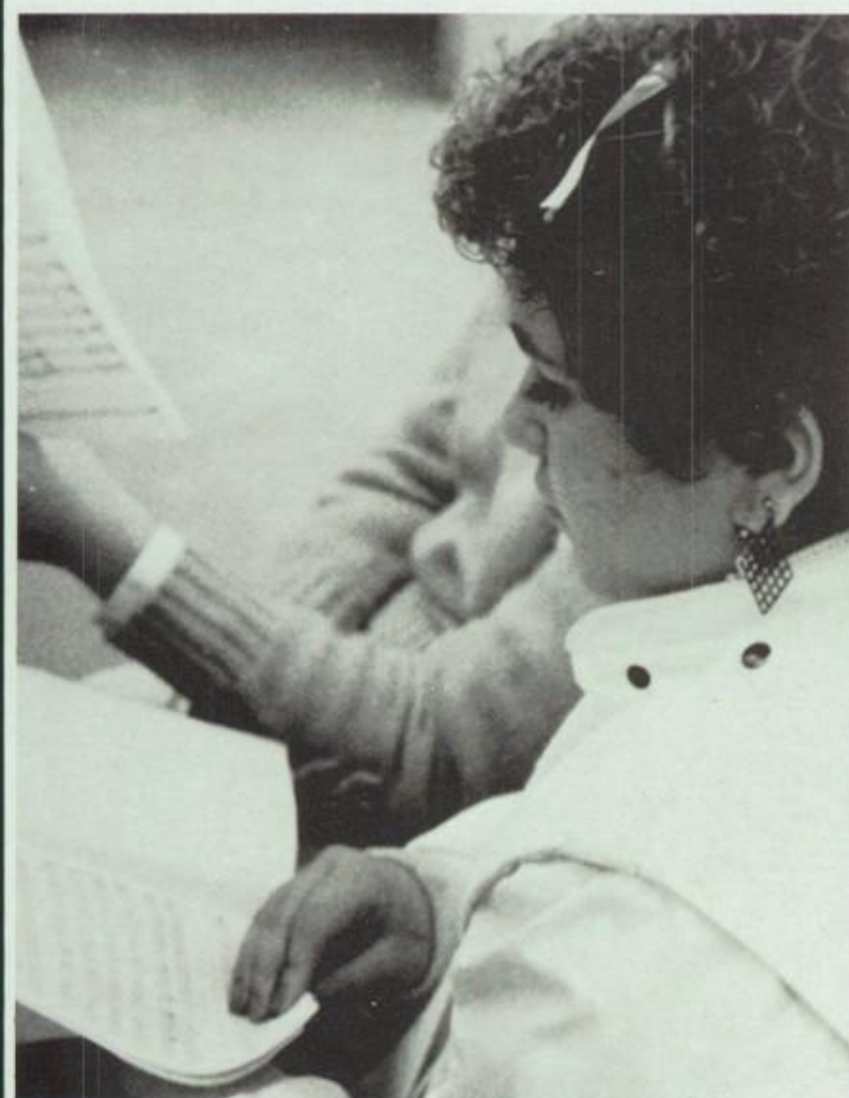

"I should've had a V-8."

Concert Choir

Director Margaret Barto, William Lang, Jodi Blackford, Cindy Silva, Jeremy Day, Danny Serrano, Shannon Orozco.

"Practice makes perfect."

Concert Choir went through a building year. The group was made up entirely of freshmen. However, it was an enthusiastic group and worked hard. This choir participated in the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, various community Service programs and a demonstration concert for Sierra Vista Junior High.

Yearbook Staff

Early October, Ms. Nyhagen encountered one of Sierra Vista's infamous gopher holes. Very unfortunately, her knee injury prevented her from working, leaving the Conquistador staff without an advisor. In December, I "volunteered" my services to help the staff complete the yearbook. Despite the atmosphere of confusion, the 1984-85 Conquistador staff managed to pull together and record the year's activities. The Conquistador would not have been completed without the help of students like; Ed (THE EDITOR) Pagsanhan, Theresa Cana, Jovilyn Balintec, Zaide Capati, Roger Gonzales, Winson Hsieh, Mariano Navarro and Vickie Martinez. Thank you for all your help and cooperation.

Editors' Message

For the yearbook staff, the year was marked with many obstacles. Our mishaps began in the early part of the school year when our advisor, Ms. Nyhagen, had a freak accident involving one of Sierra Vista's infamous gopher holes. With the absence of Ms. Nyhagen, our spirits and motivation were dampened, but most crucially, the unity among the staff members was lost.

Still, the ununited staff managed to meet several deadlines without the proper guidance of an advisor. We are proud of this accomplishment for we proved to ourselves that our determination to produce an annual worthy of recognition was not dampened by our unfortunate predicaments.

Along the way, Ms. Oliver has become part of the Conquistador staff. She volunteered her time and effort to give the yearbook staff a much needed guidance. Through her leadership, the staff became a much more cohesive unit.

Moreover, we wouldn't have met those crucial deadlines without the help of caring individuals outside the Conquistador staff. We would like to thank Mr. Scott for his ample support. We would like to thank Mrs. Wentworth for her much needed contributions in typing and editing copy materials. We would also like to thank Norma Ortiz, the representative from Taylor Publishing Co. for the extra push and motivation she often has given us when we most needed it. Our gratitude goes to a list of many others such as Joon Park, Tracy Flock.

Within the pages of this 1984-85 annual are unforgettable memories we have put together with tireless effort and determination. We sincerely hope that you enjoy the contents of the Conquistador annual.

La Estrella

With the opening of the 1984-85 school year, the La Estrella Staff's goal was to improve quality and maintain journalistic integrity. The issues contained many firsts: pages with color, advanced printing techniques, long editions (12 to 16 pages), a gamut of topics, and increased circulation.

With the efforts of two new advisors and a crew of enthusiastic volunteers, we feel — and hope you agree — that we produced a successful newspaper.

The La Estrella staff would like to thank the Sierra Vista student body, administration, and certified and classified staffs for their cooperation and support. The success of La Estrella can be attributed only to the joint efforts of us all!!!

Adv. English

The advanced program had three main goals which were: to complete secondary school student curriculum requirements at a high level of achievement, to prepare students to be competitive on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and, finally, to ready students for basic college level work. The courses stressed vocabulary, Miller's Analogies, reading analysis, composition, formal grammar, and reasoning skills. Not only were advanced English classes designed for students who were preparing for college, but also for students who were attaining the highest level of high school English skills.

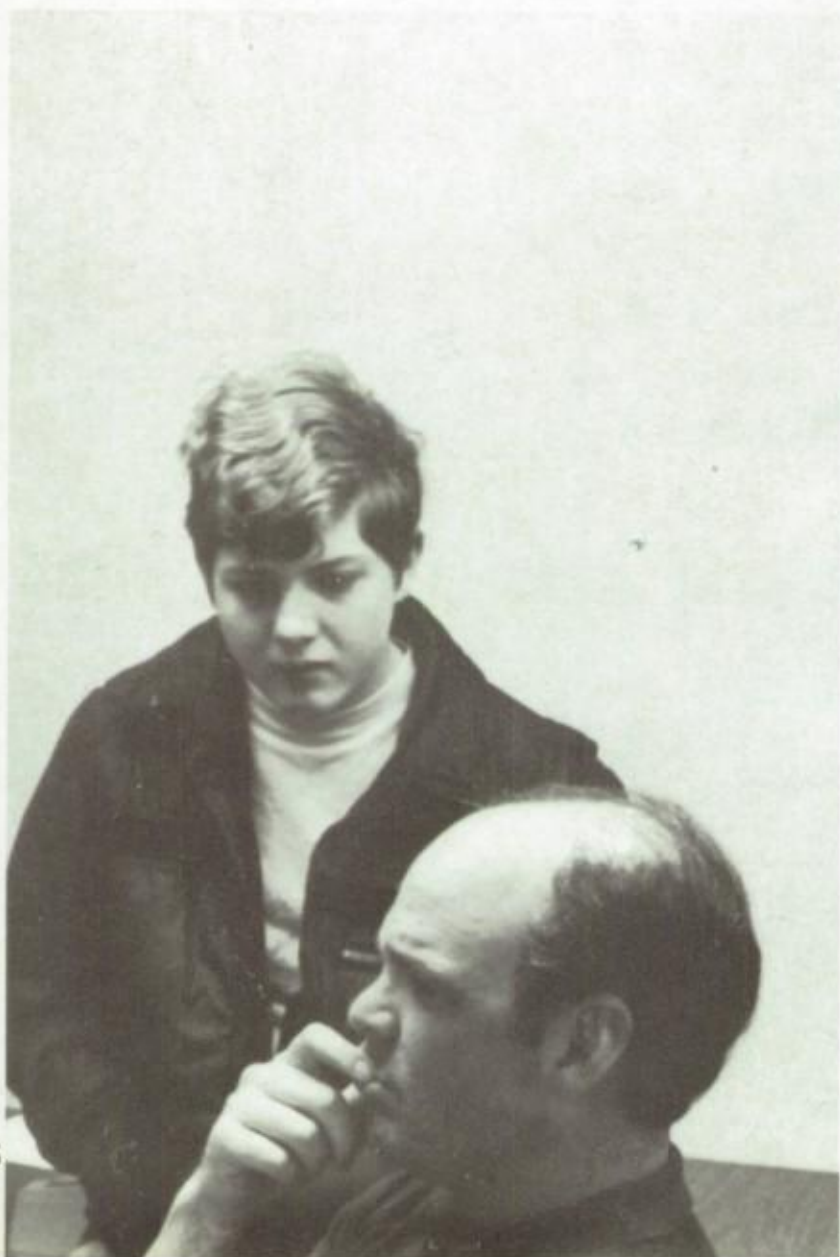

Computers

Sierra Vista High School has been offering computer classes for six years, but has only been in the lab for two years.

A student could take up to two and half years of computer classes. Computer Literature for one semester and Computer Programing for two years.

Computer Literature is an overview of the computer language. In programing, students learn the languages (basic and pascal) of the computers and how to write their programs.

Mr. Cozen said that in the future it might be possible to take more classes as they are planning to add more languages.

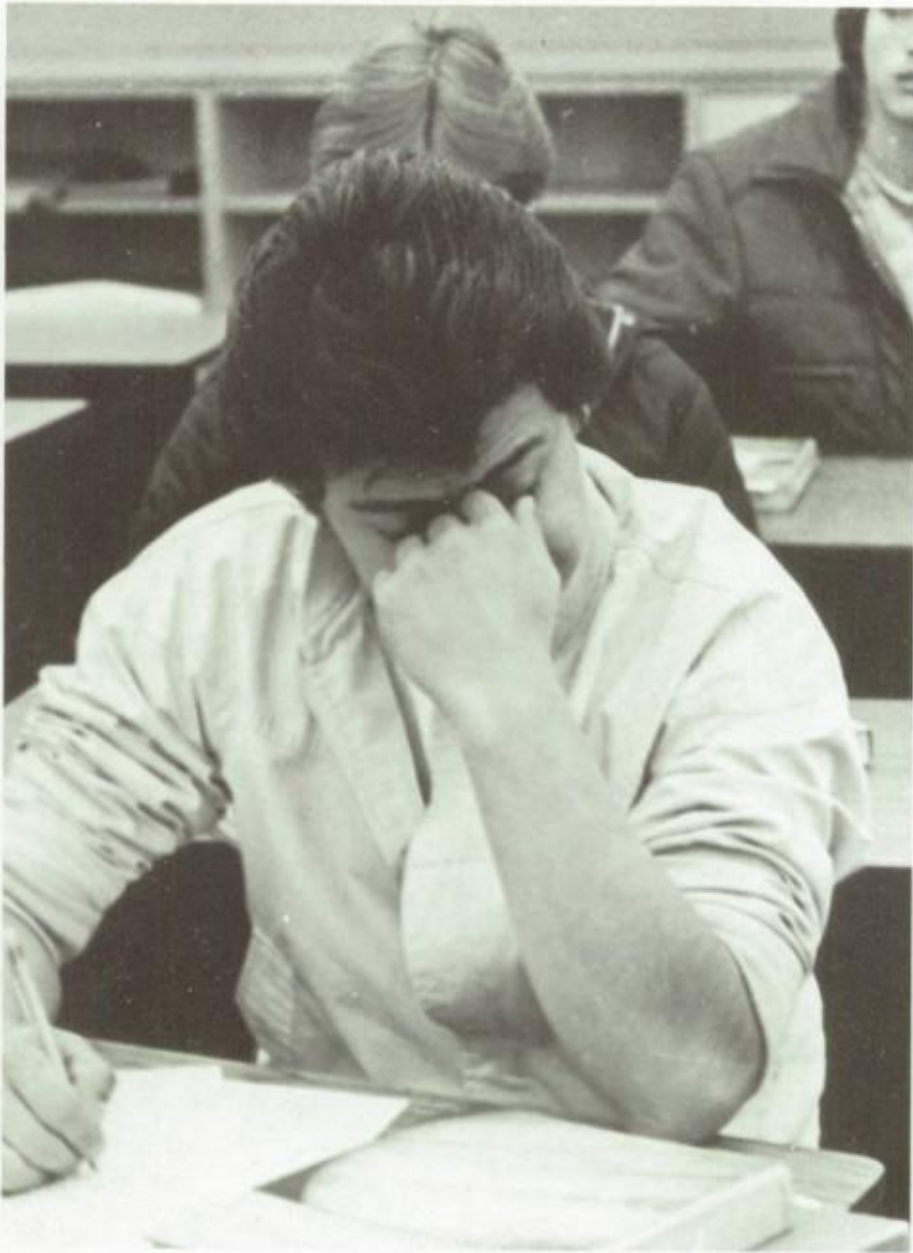

Achtung! Wunderbar!

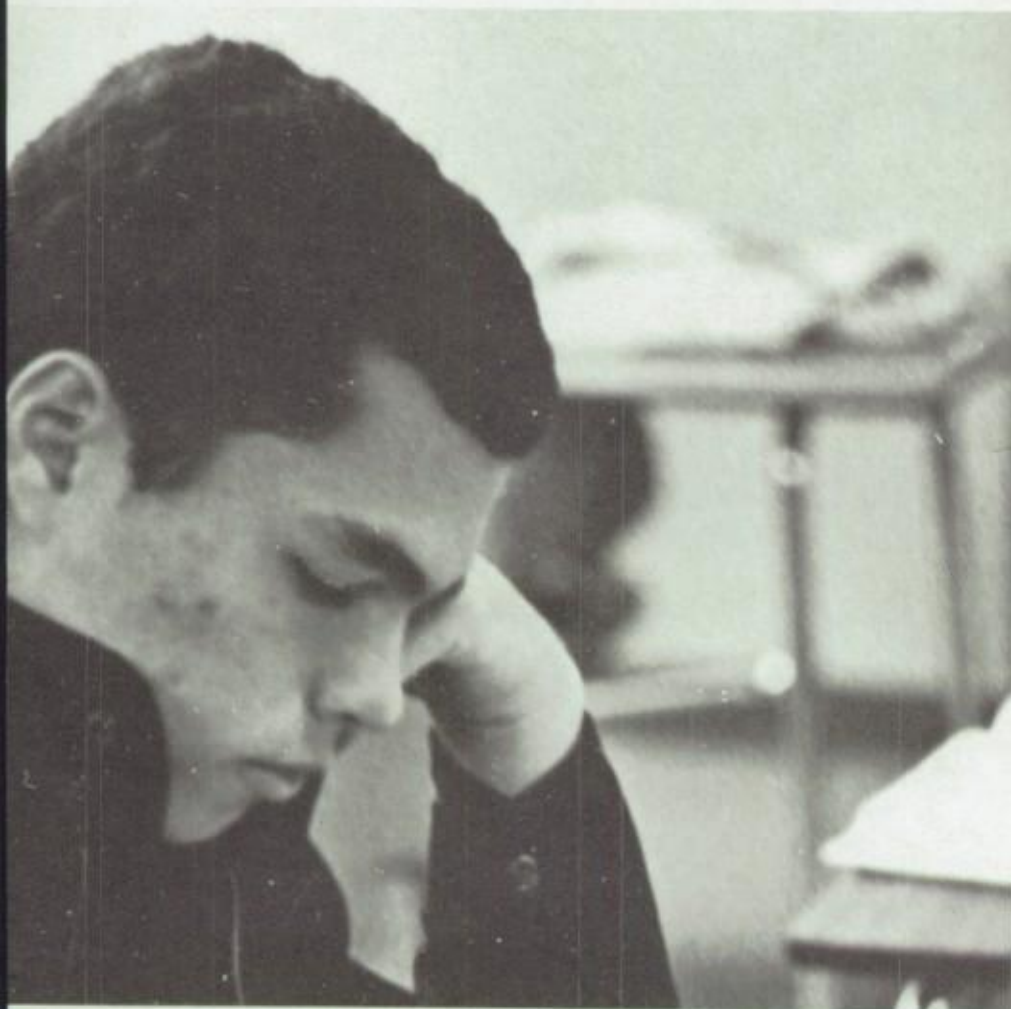

German was back in the curriculum.

Students could learn the grounds and meanings of the German language. As they say in German, "Whoever knows a foreign language knows his own language."

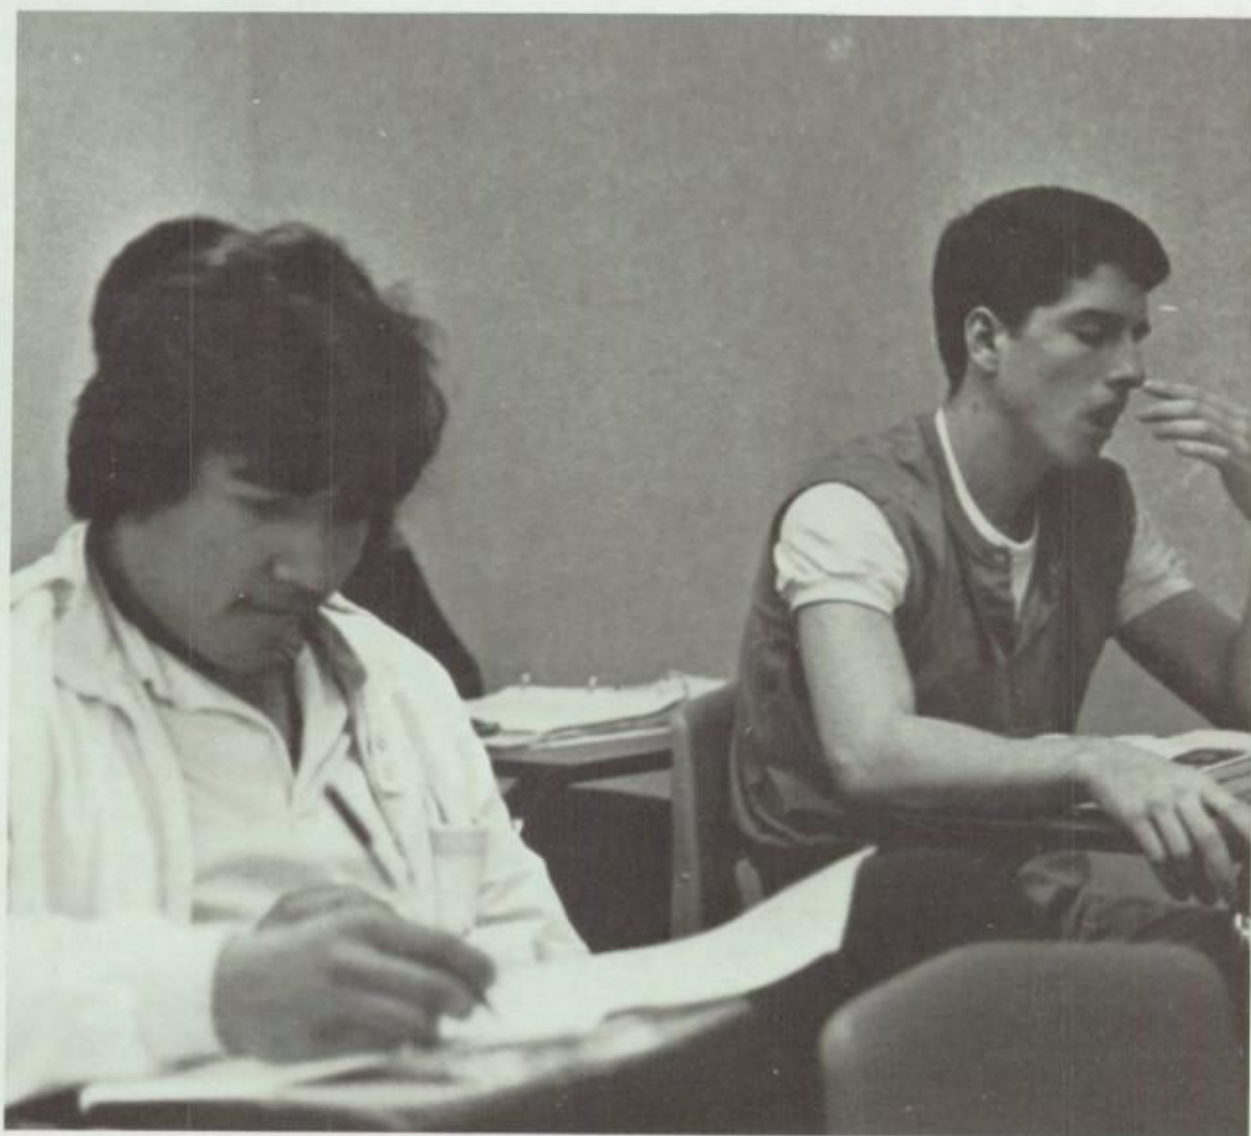

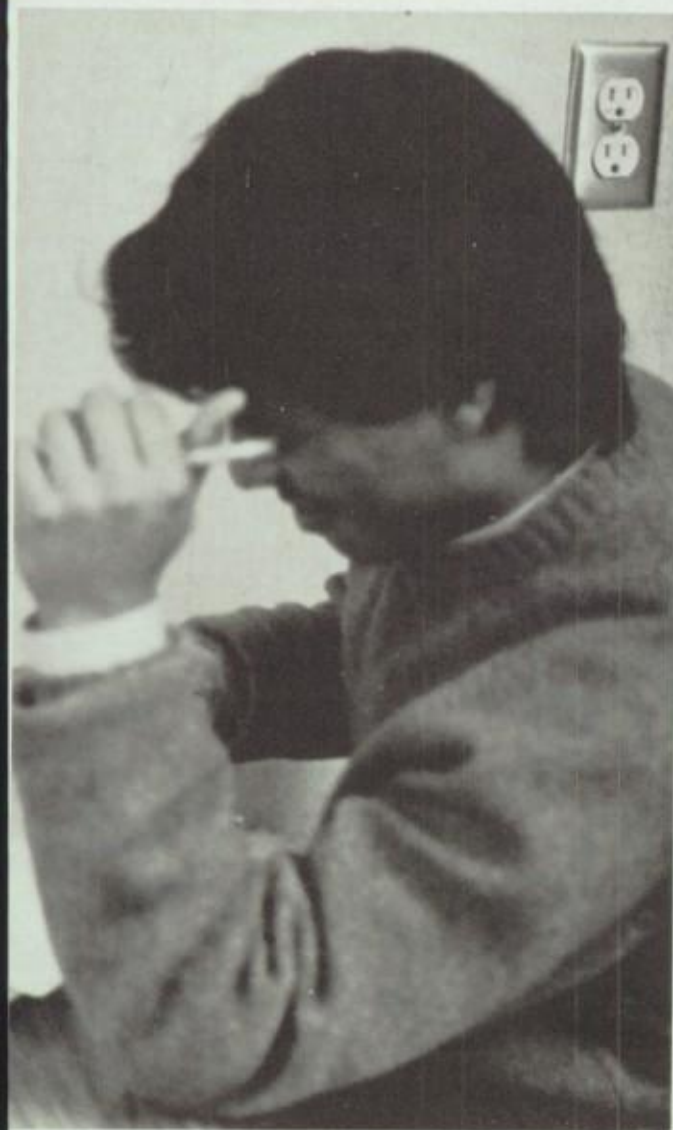

Mathematics

The Sierra Vista High School math department offered a full spectrum of math courses from remedial math to calculus. Most students had to take two and half years of math. Any senior who had not completed 25 credits of math, including Geometry 1-2, had to take and pass senior math. There was also a math club on campus. Students considered taking more than the required math courses because it would aid them in their college entrance requirements.

Science

The Sierra Vista High School Science Department was proud of its staff and its course offerings. Classes were offered in Life Science, Physical Science, Earth Science, Bilingual Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physiology and Physics. These classes were taught by Mr. Hughes, Mr. Jackson, Ms. Burke, Mr. Thompson, and Mr. Horsley. With the increased graduation requirements of two years of science, the staff looked forward to exposing more and more students to the work of the subject. In what other subject area could a student learn everything from volcanos, earthquakes and outerspace to the sex life of an earthworm? What other subject area offered complete dissection from the worm to the cat? And what other subject allowed students to work with $500 microscopes which magnified as much as 1,000 times. The science department looked forward to the challenge of the future and meeting the needs of the students at Sierra Vista High School.

Social Studies

The goals of the Social Studies Department course offering were: to teach map skills, help students gain an understanding of the world around them and to prepare them for their role as informed citizens. Students were required to take four years of social studies for graduation. The required courses were World Geography, Western Civilization, U.S. History, Government and Economics. There were three elective courses that were also offered: psychology, law and sociology. These courses provided students with a greater awareness of themselves and the world around them.

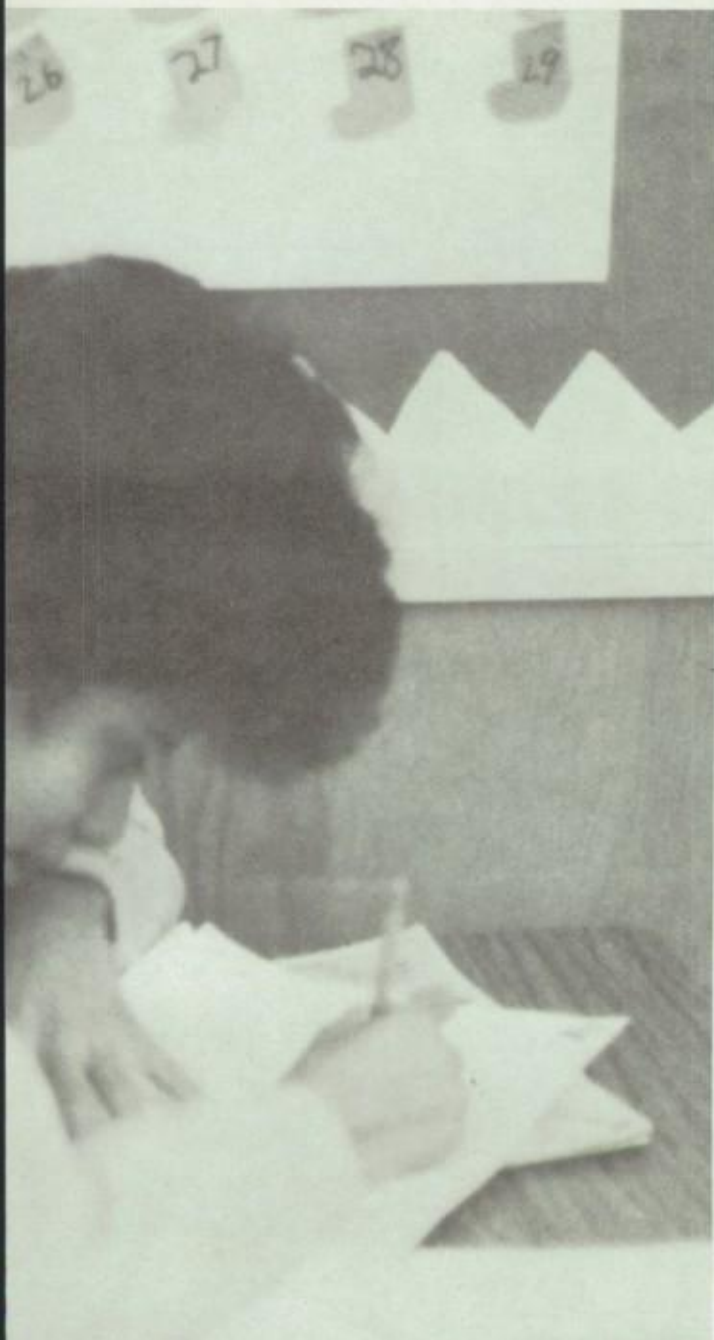

Special Ed.

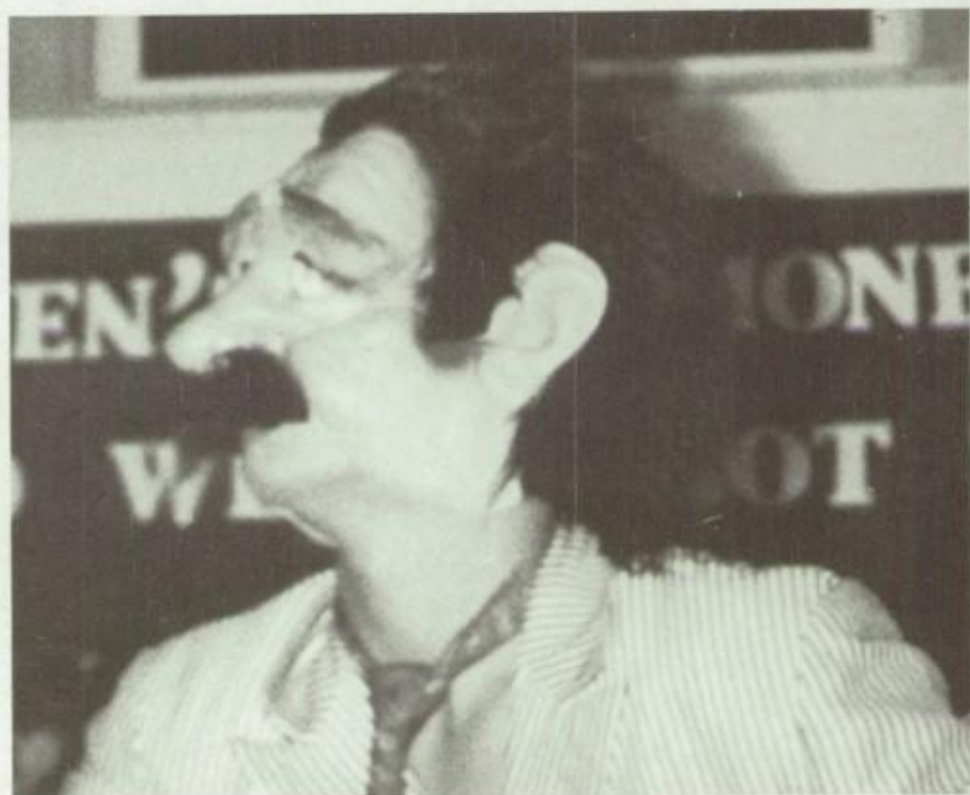

The Special Education Department at Sierra Vista High School consisted of two programs: Resource Specialist Program (RSP) and Learning Handicapped Program (LH).

Students in the Resource Specialist Program attended classes in the regular school program for more than half of the school day. Students in the Learning Handicapped Program attended regular classes up to half of the school day.

Instruction in both programs was designed to increase reading and math skills and to present content area subjects such as history and science at the student's individual achievement level. Regular and specialized materials were used to allow the student with special needs to reach his or her full potential.

Activities

It was a year of many activities at Sierra Vista High School. Students were very enthusiastic and attendance seemed very high.

Participating in brunch-time games, cheering on all the teams, attending night-time dances, club socials, and performances of the school play were not just fun and exciting, these activities helped SVHS by increasing student involvement and action and also promoting school spirit and gave a sense of belonging to every Sierra Vista High School student. With such exciting and enjoyable activities, the students received a feeling of joy and satisfaction. Exciting activities were a major part of making this a successful and enjoyable year.

Halloween

Halloween is a festival celebrated on October 31st. Halloween means hallowed or holy evening because it takes place the day before All Saints Day. It is also a time for parties for the young and the old. Many schools, including SVHS, have celebrated halloween every year. Students came to school in many array of costumes. There were special games which were played on Halloween, such as bobbing for apples and telling fortunes and ghost stories.

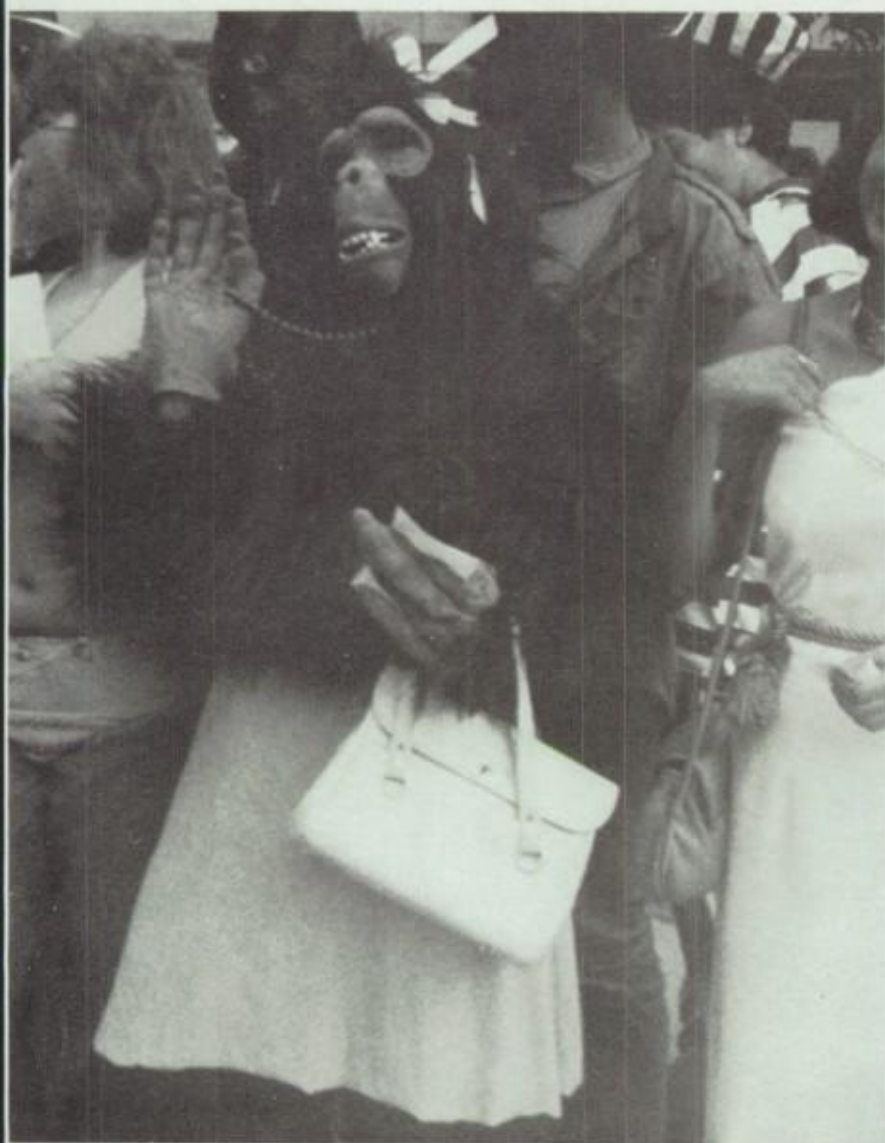

It's Howdy Doody Time.

Hi, out there in pom pom world.

Hey, pal, look at all those ugly people!

Let's go on a banana break.

We're the crayola people looking for the box!

I'm ready for the prom.

Four scores and seven years ago...

Right: How much do you think we made so far.

Left: Ten dollars for this guy, are you crazy?

Right: Do you have enough to buy him.

Right: Seventy dollars is the estimation of money made during the Slave Auction Day.

Oooh! Here comes the sexy legs.

I like the one in the argyle socks.

The champion of the 1984 legs contest — Coach Grandell.
Look at those legs move.

We're number one!

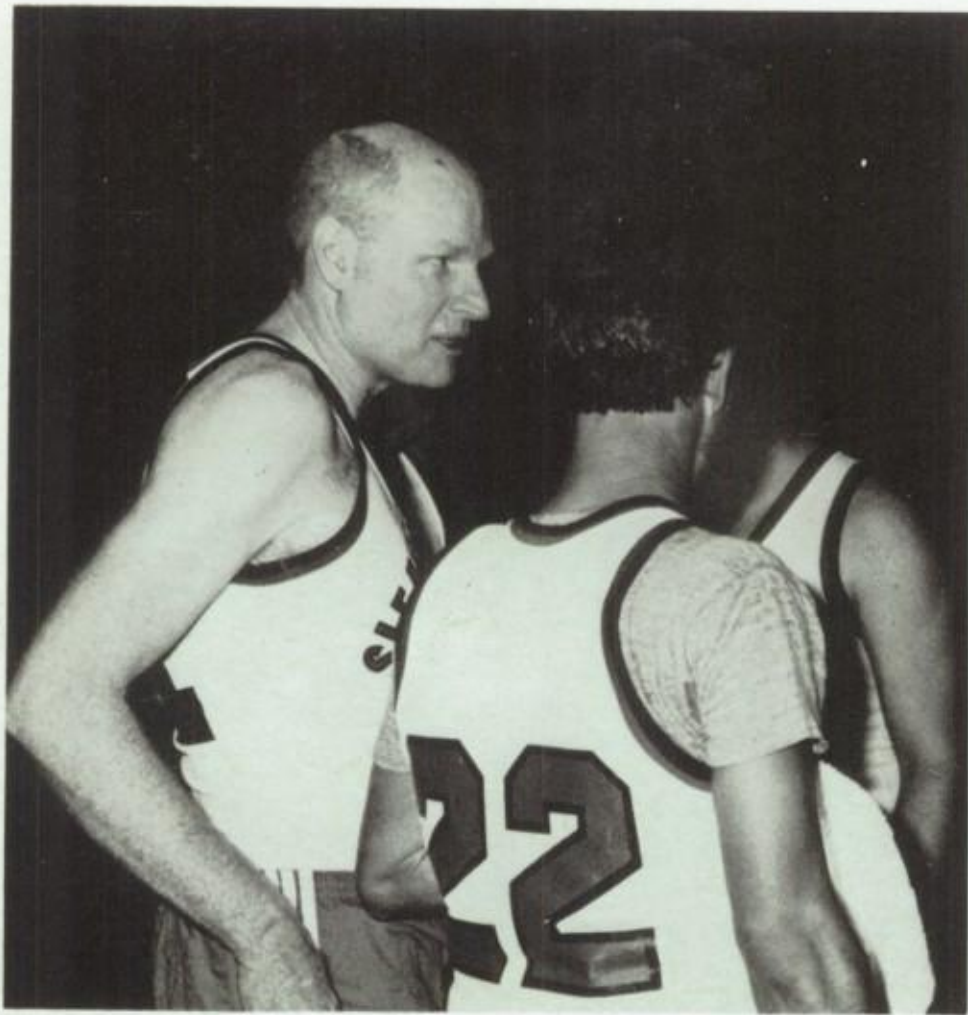

You wish!

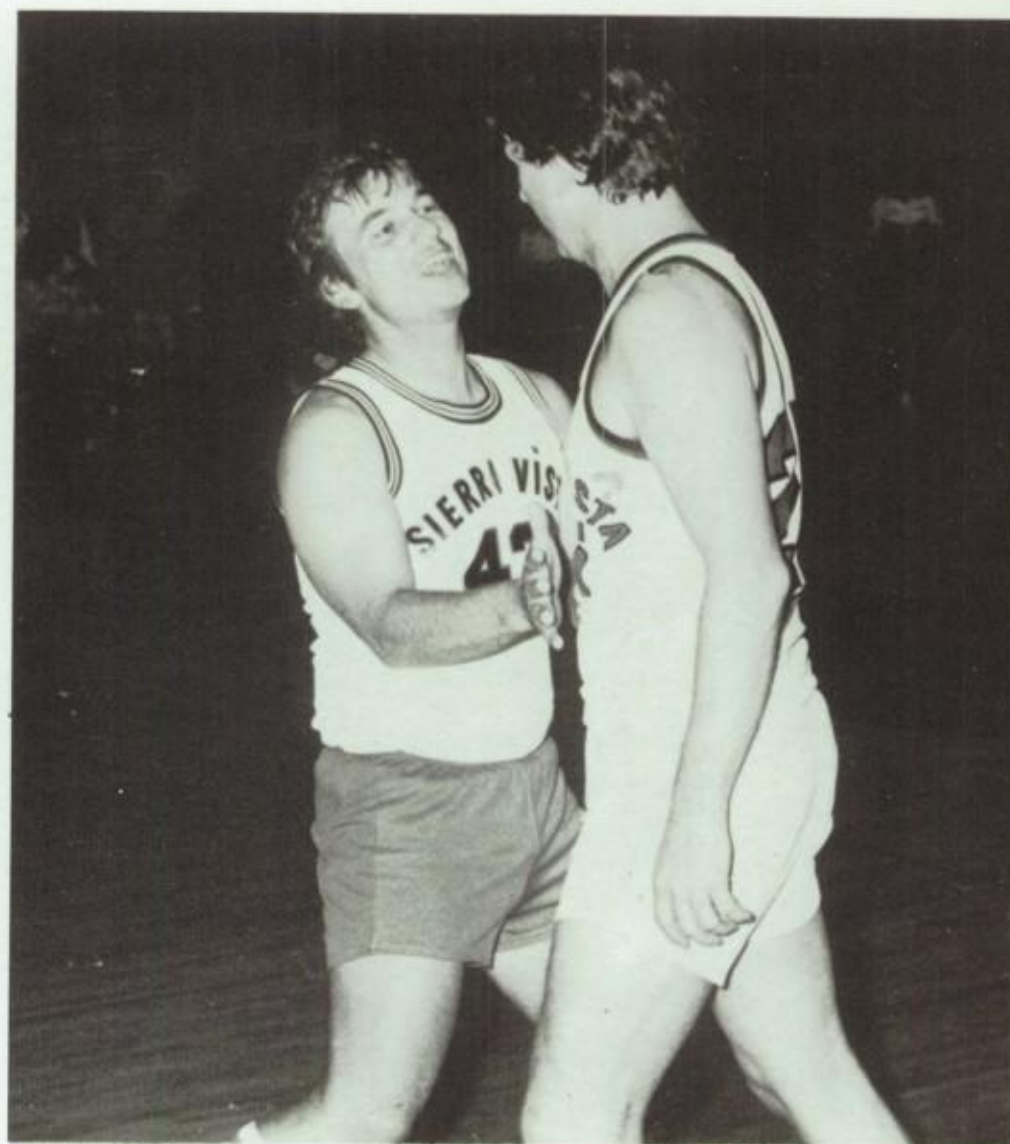

What's up!

Hanging around and looking cool.

So, what's the plan guys?

Hey! We're not doing too bad.

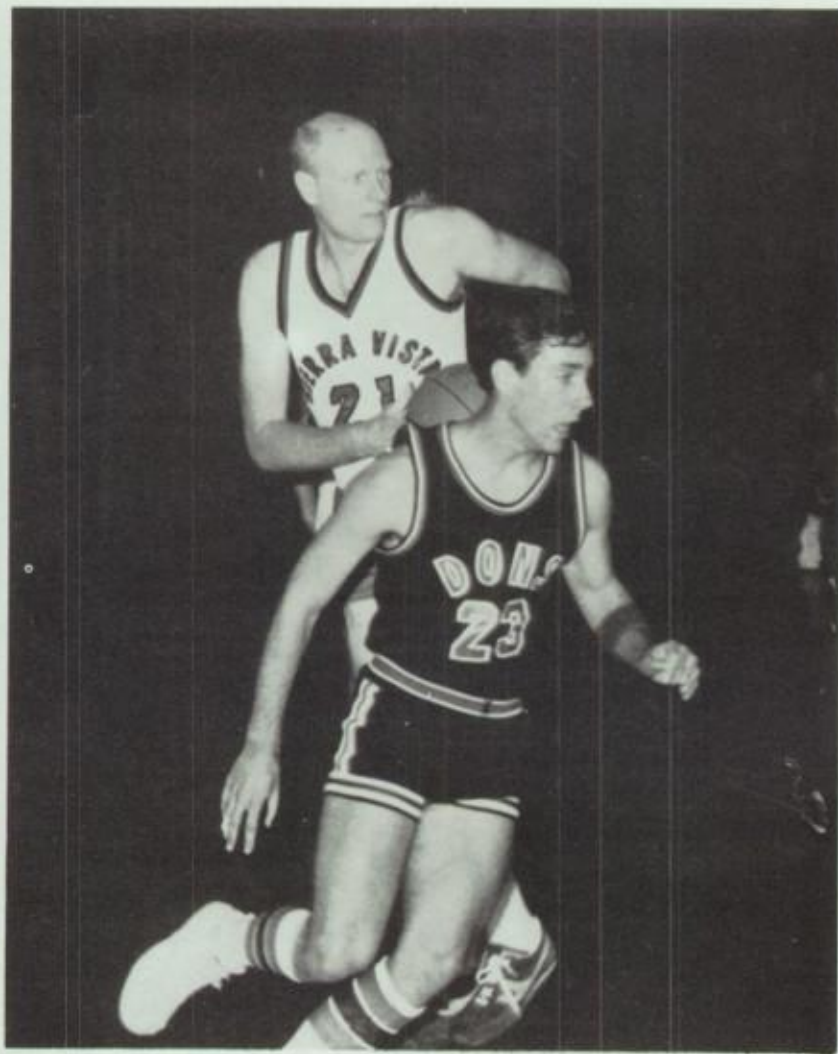

Where's everybody going.

Oh, how it feels to be young again.

*What do they mean
again!???
I'm still young!*

I better get out of here. He's taller than I am.

Now let me see? How do I go about getting around this guy.

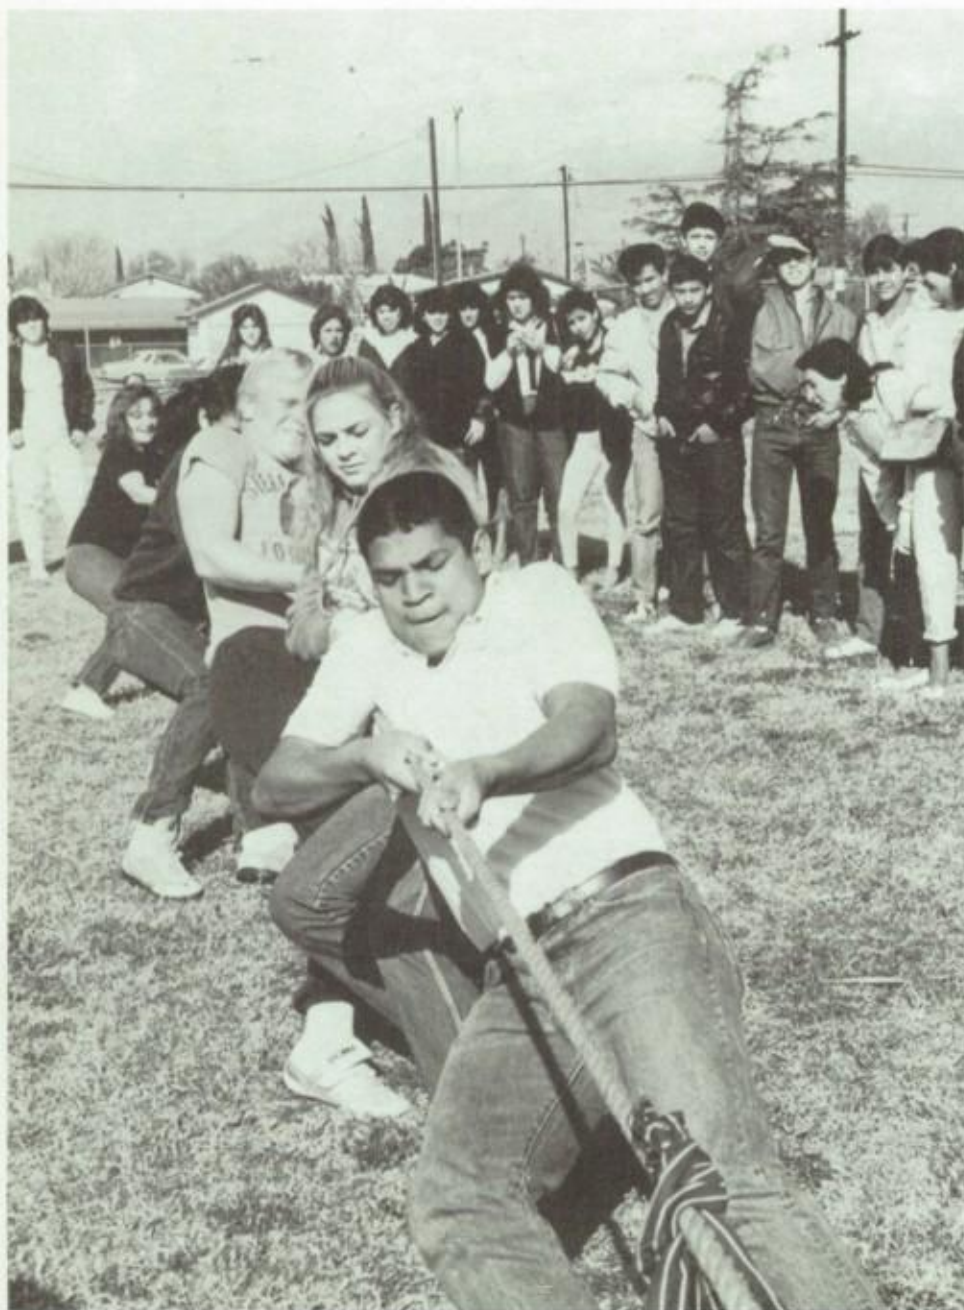

Where did the ball go?

Please don't hold my hand.

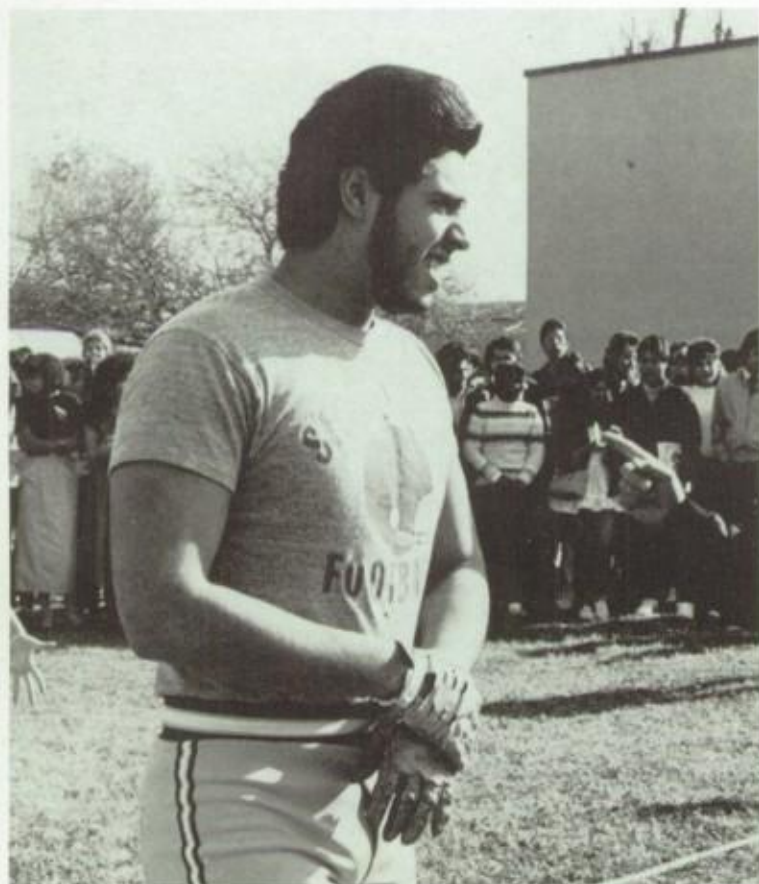

Don't block me! We're on the same team.

Pull, pull we're winning.

Pull guys don't let them win.

Man! They're stronger than I thought.

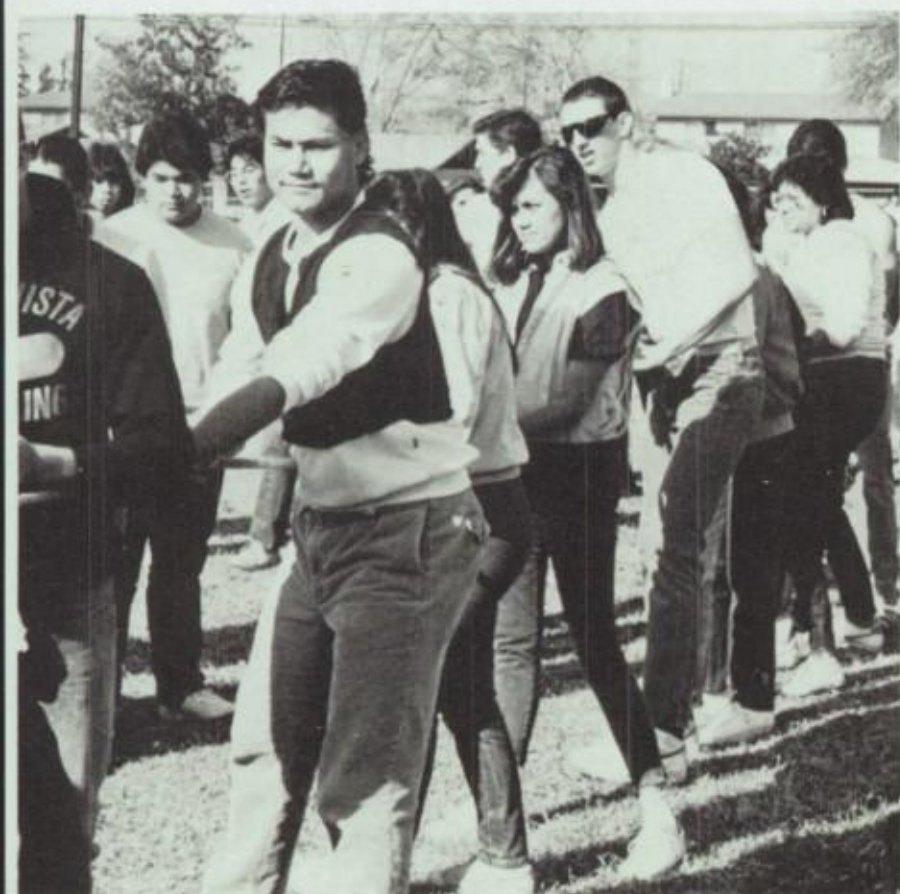

Congratulations, we did it.

Pull you guys.

Mark, pull harder I'm slipping.

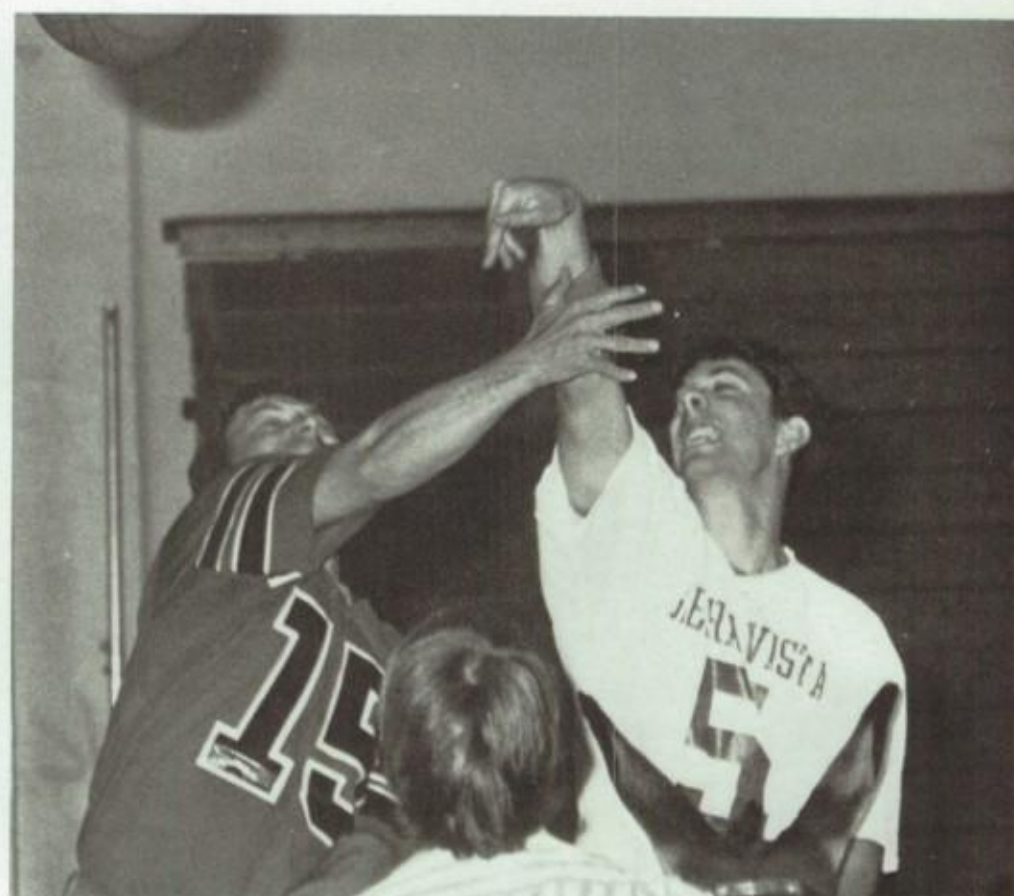

This looks like it's going to be hard.

Oh no! My nails are breaking.

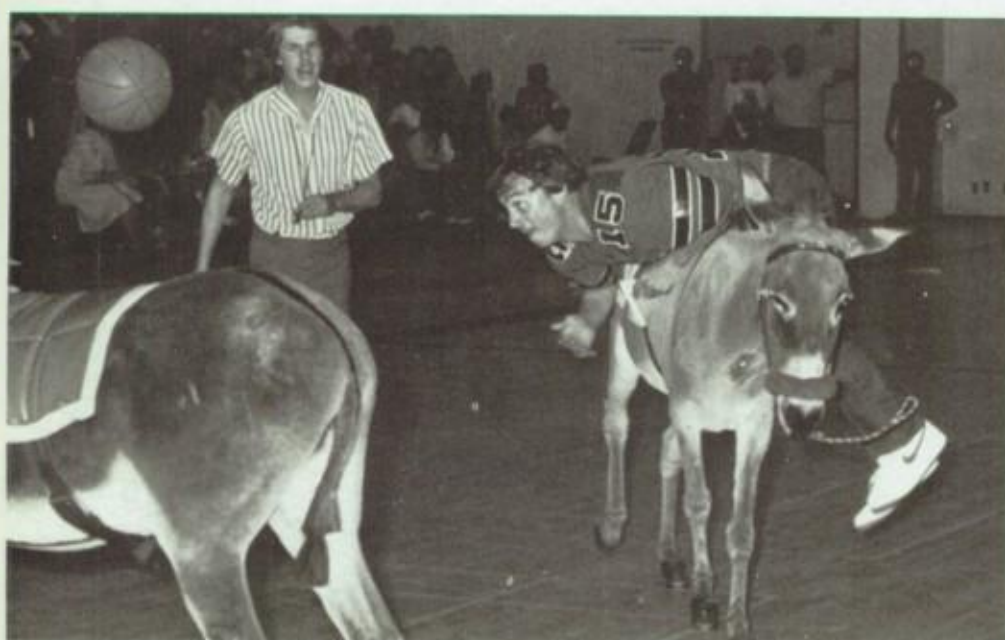

Whoa! Boy, Whoa!

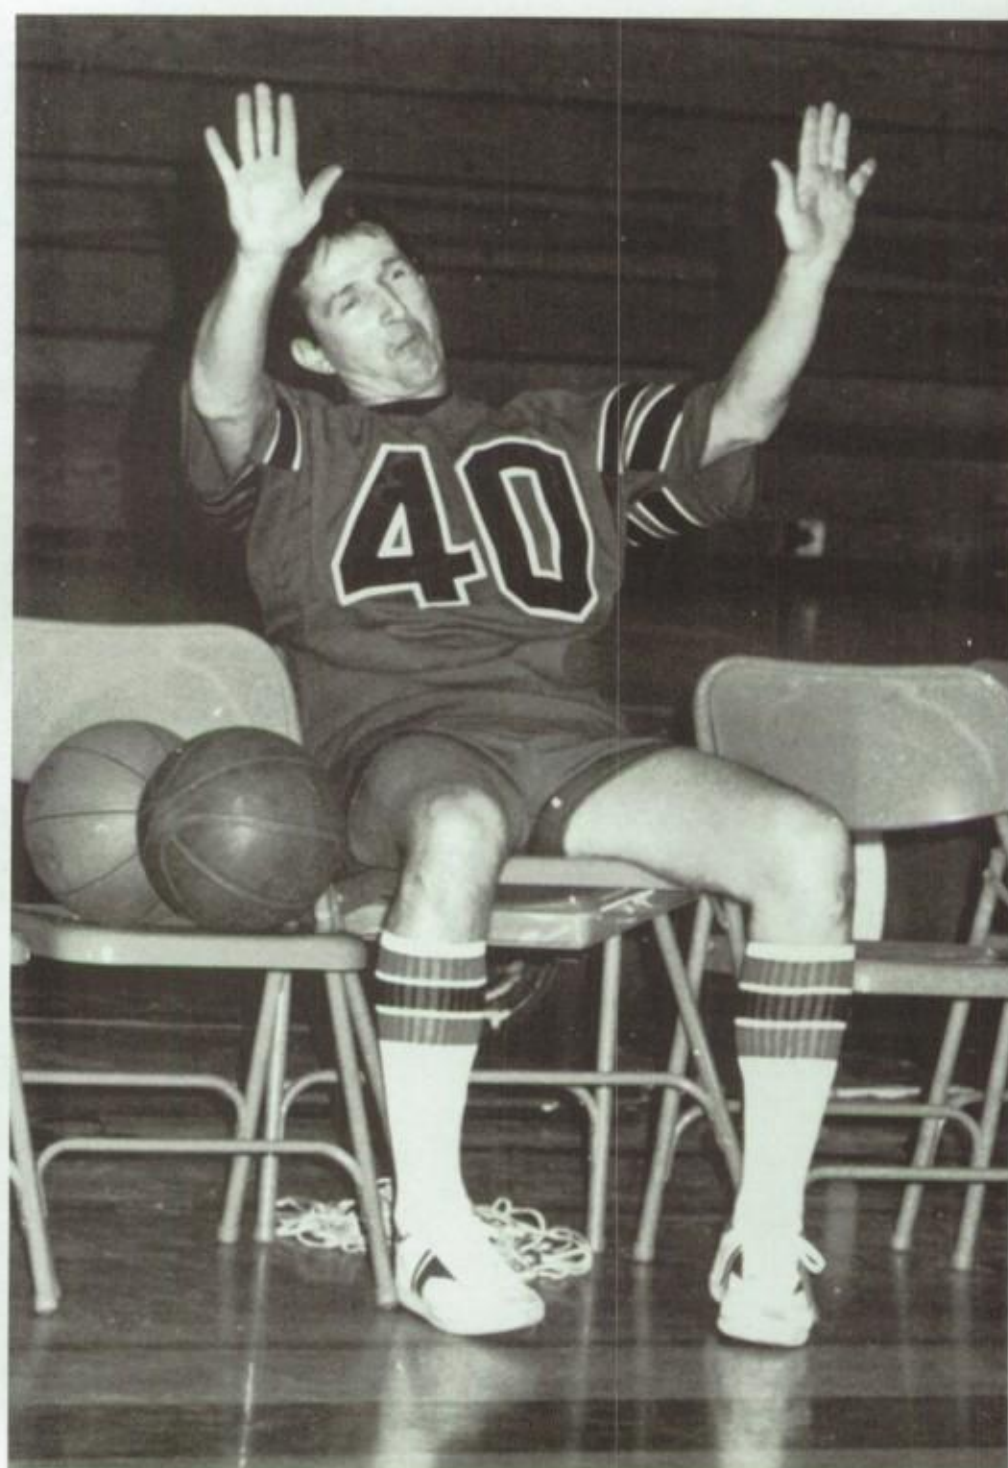

Oooo! You have some rough hands.

How do you get on these things?

Let me have it! Let me have it!

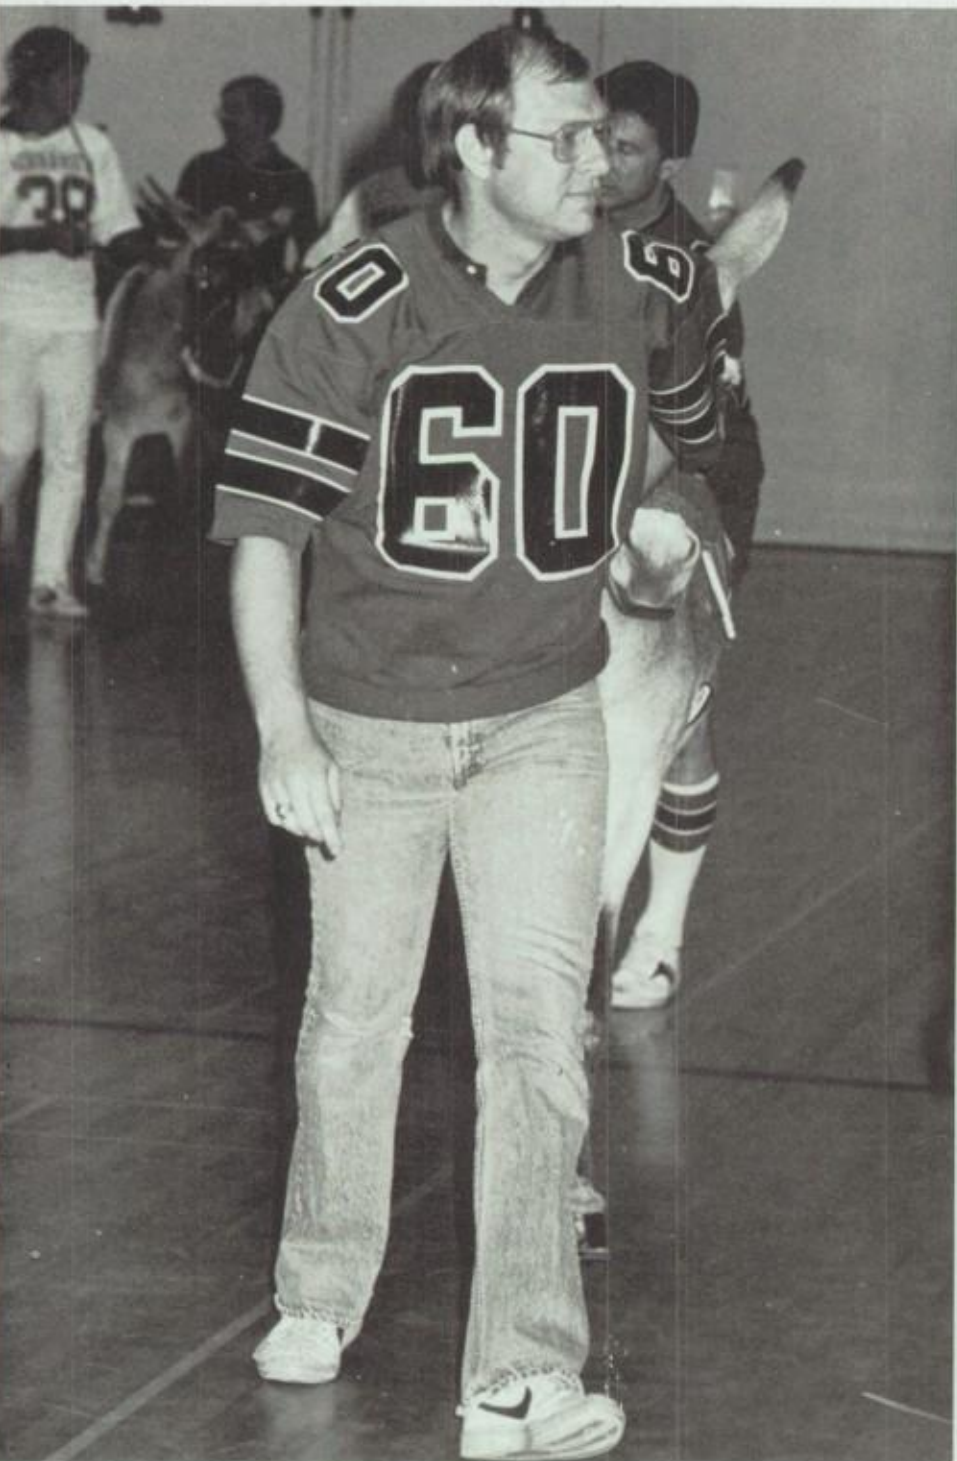

No more, please!

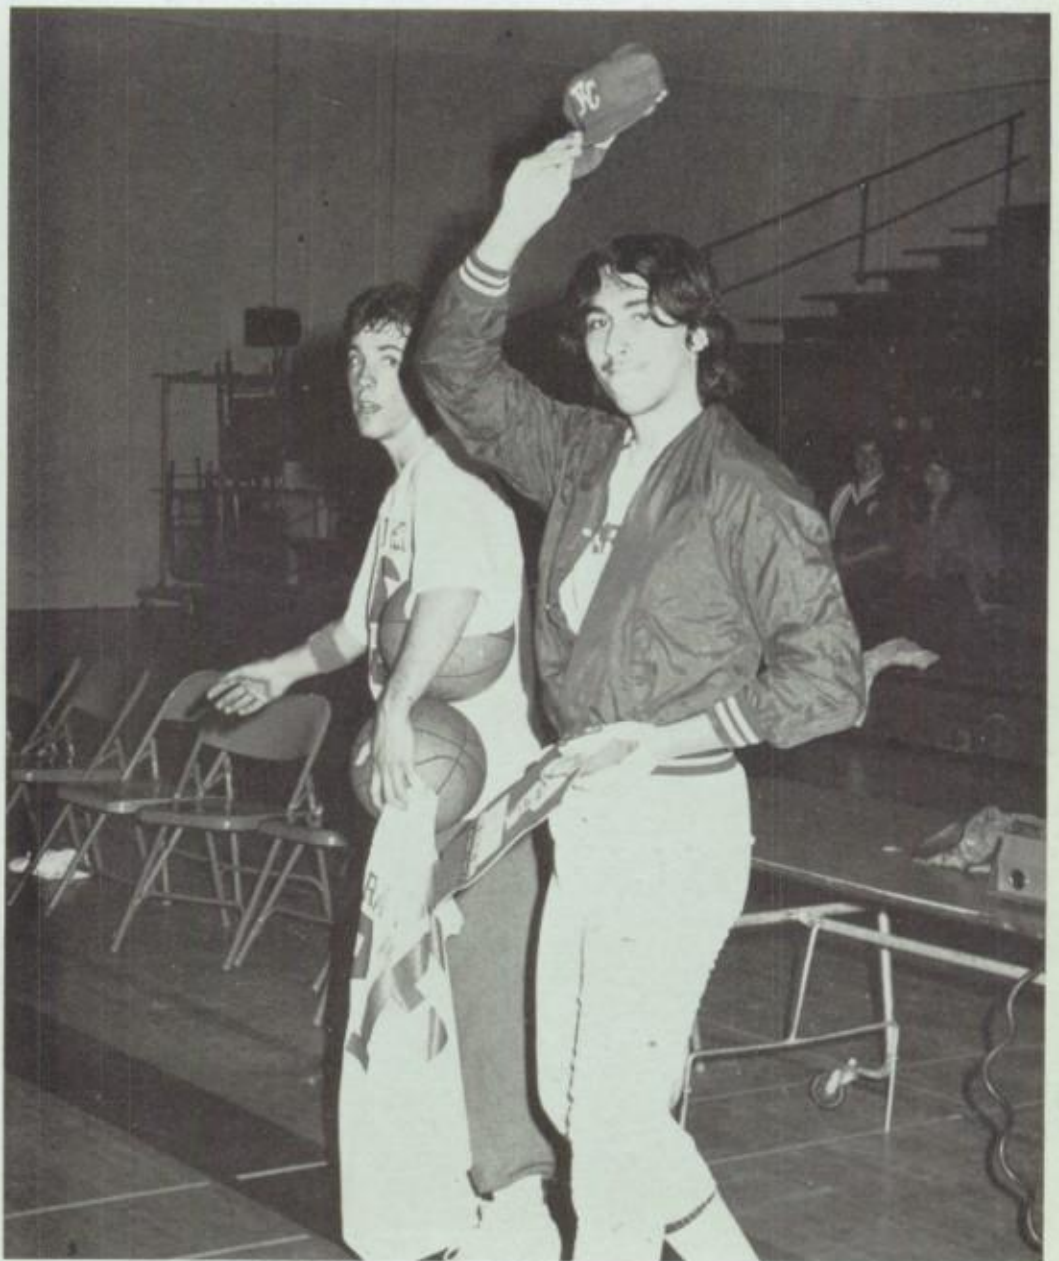

Whoa! This mule is pretty quick.

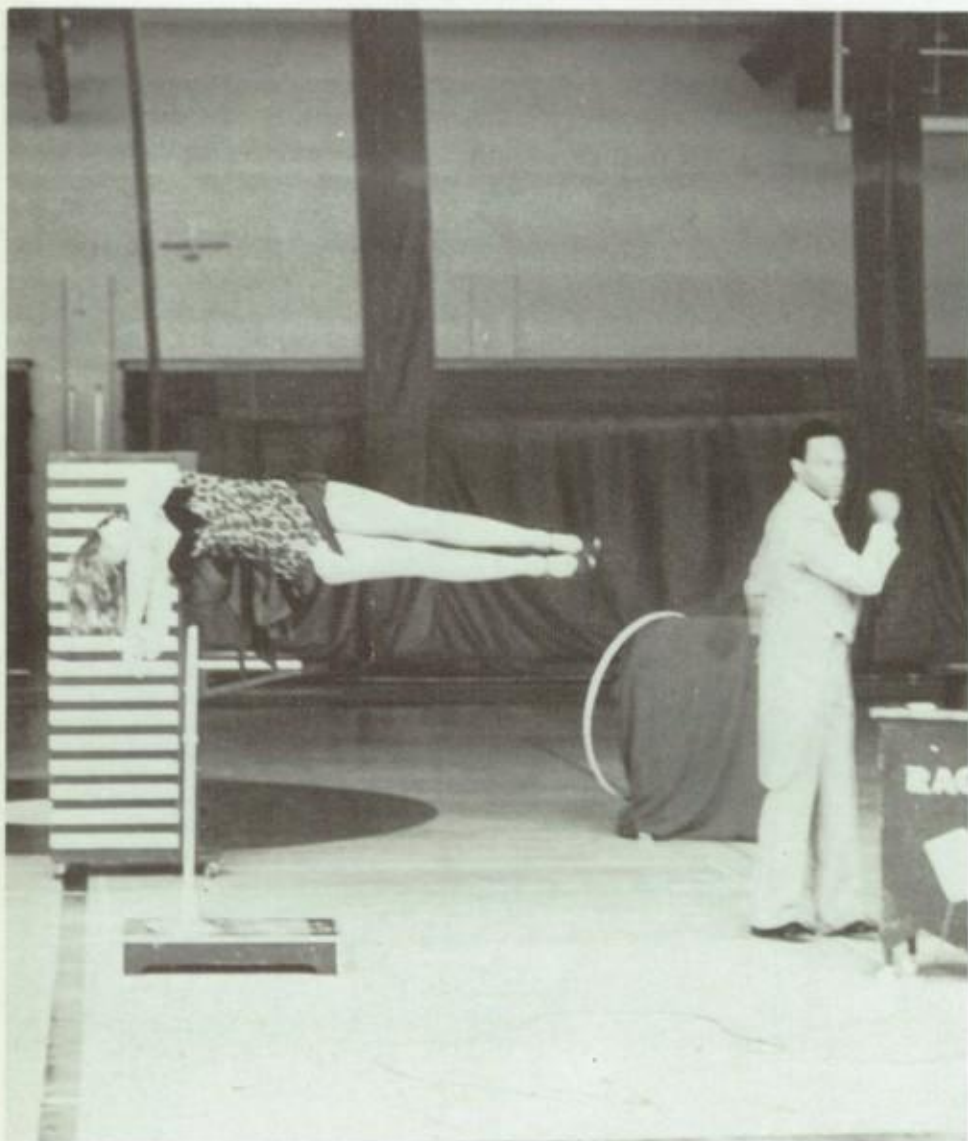

I've still got it.

Oooh! My aching body.

Thank you my fellow students.

She must be wearing "sheer energy."

How Exciting?

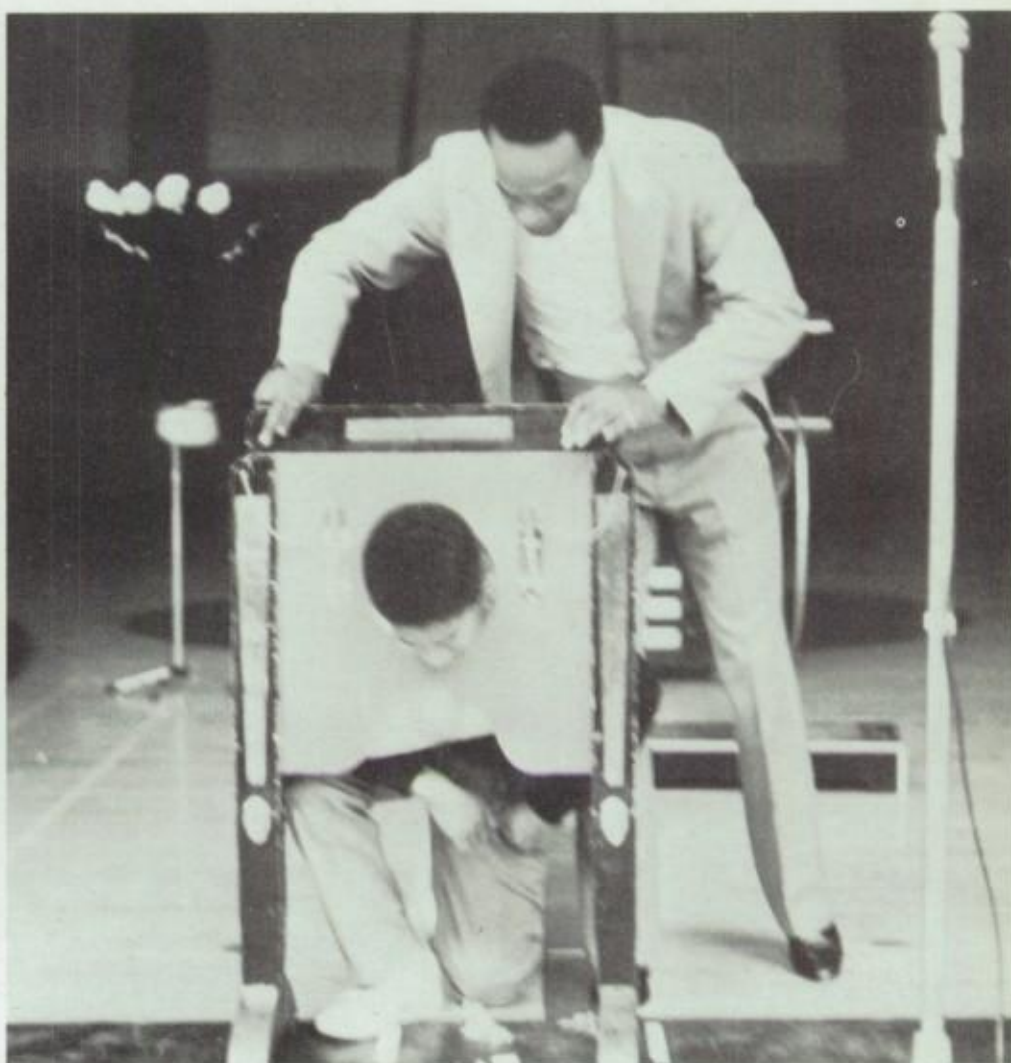

Why Me!

I wonder what she's doing back there?

My secret cure for headaches.

Aspirin free pain relief.

This guy thinks he's Superman.

Ah ha! A sucker is born every minute.

Copter Drops in

Friday Feb. 9th during third period, a marine helicopter provided a diversion for Sierra Vista High students by making an emergency landing on the athletic field behind the gym.

The large helicopter landed about 10:40 A.M. when a warning light flashed on the instrument panel indicating a possible problem.

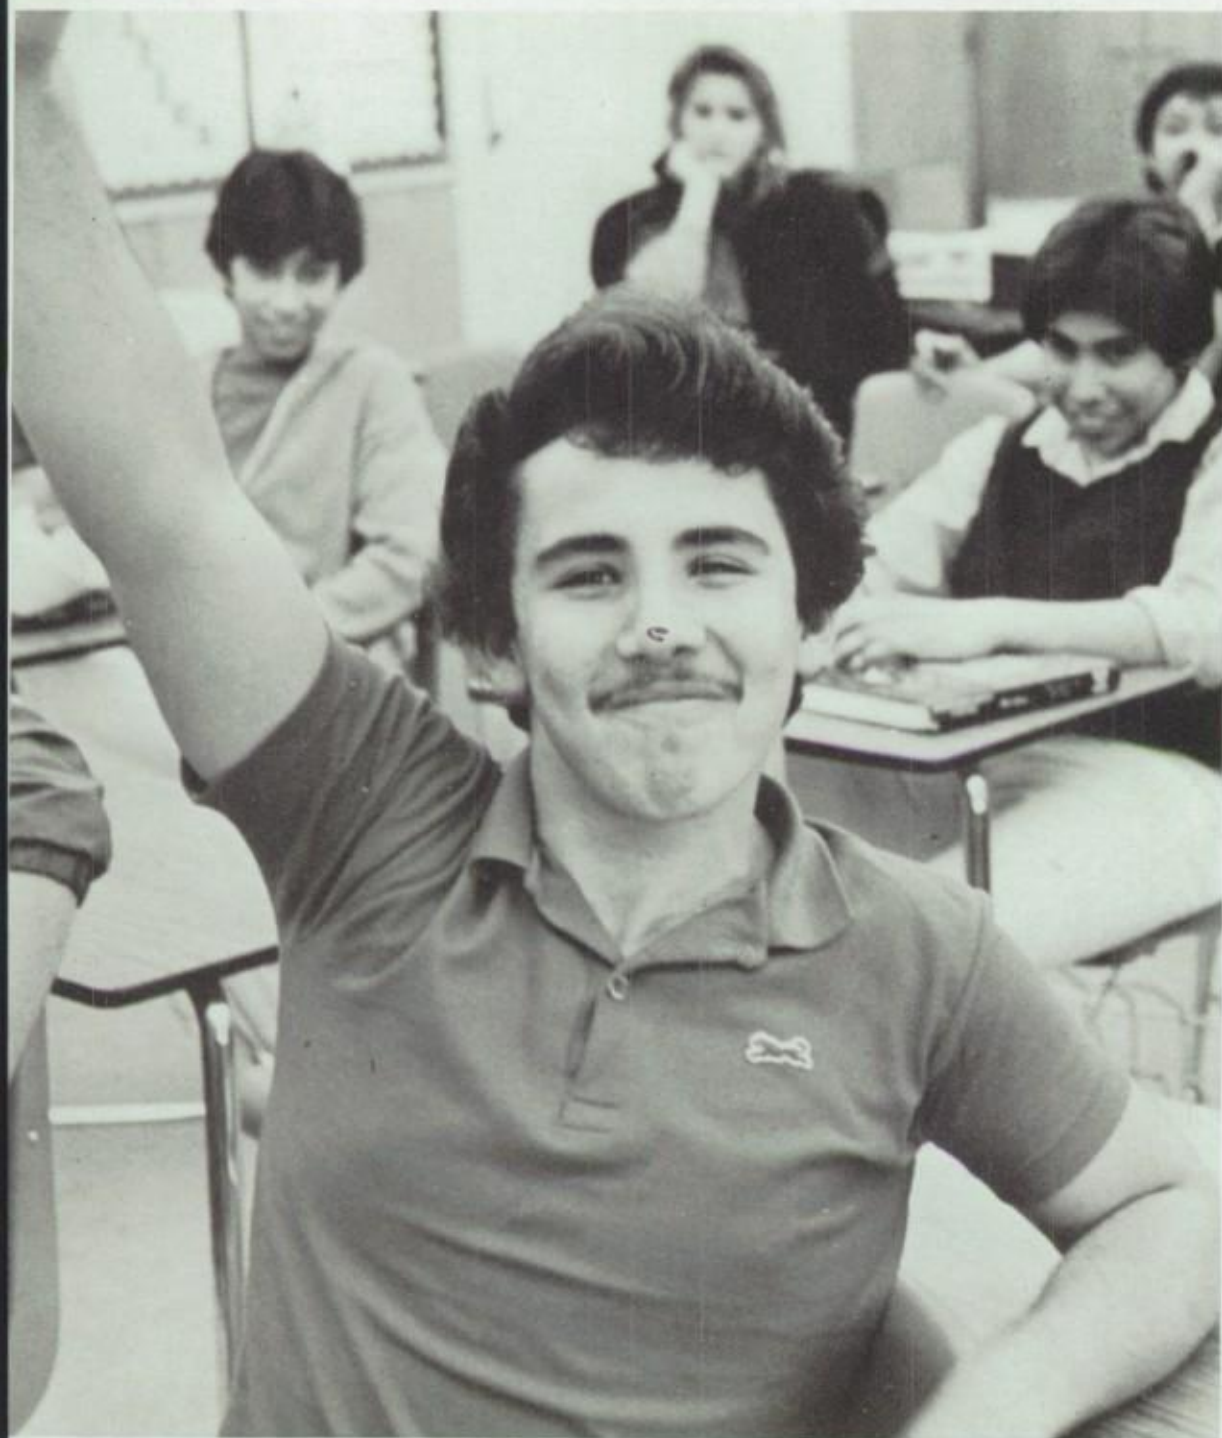

Once on the ground, the crew investigated the problem, found nothing wrong and took off about one hour later.

During its stay, the giant green aircraft drew a large number of student spectators. Police and school officials kept spectators at a safe distance.

The only evidence of their emergency landing was the oil stain on the athletic field.

The incident created lots of excitement among the students and caused many students to be late to fourth period.

The Football Homecoming ritual was a much celebrated tradition filled with excitement and electricity. The celebration began with the nomination of the princesses, followed by Homecoming Week, and then the arrival of the long awaited Homecoming Night.

Homecoming Week was often an exciting time in school. Special days such as Stuffed Animal Day, Concert T-Shirt Day, Button Day, and Grub-by Shoes Day were celebrated in honor of the five princesses. During brunch, there were many activities such as pie eating contests, and bubble-blowing contests in which the students can enjoy.

Lastly, the culmination of the Football Homecoming celebration ended in an exciting extravaganza with the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Queen Rosa Garcia was able to experience the feeling of being crowned as the reigning queen on that one starry night. For her, and for the princesses, the Homecoming celebration was an unforgettable experience.

1984-85 Christmas Formal

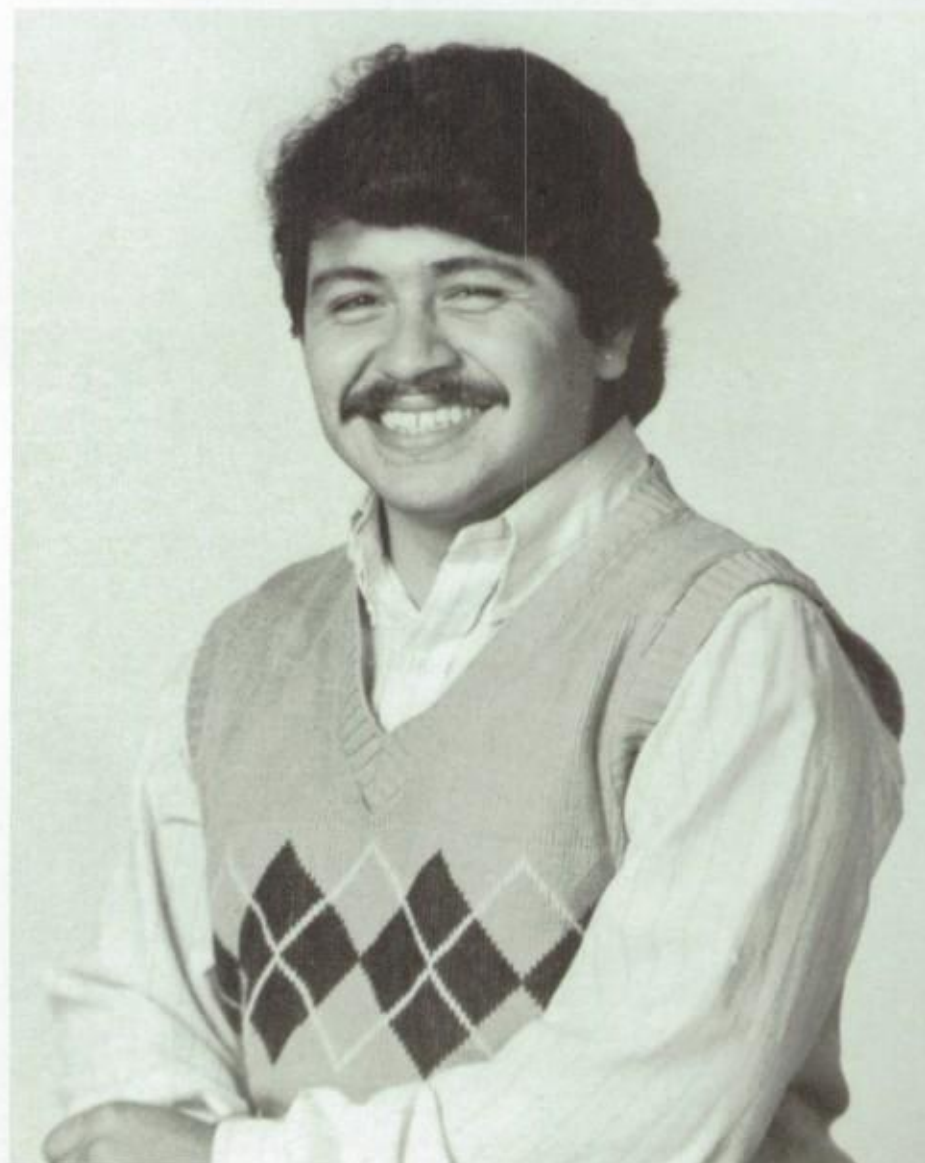

Filled with laughter and joy, the Christmas Formal was truly a memorable event. The formal took place on Dec. 28, at the Quiet Cannon. One of the things which helped make the formal a success was probably the unforgettable dinner which consisted of Terriyaki chicken, steamed mixed vegetables, accompanied by mashed potatoes or rice, and for desert, ice cream. Also one of the nights main attractions was the unique sounds of Double Play, which provided the music students enthusiastically danced to. And let us not forget about the climax of the evening — the crowning of the new King and Queen, Danny Perez and Rita Ramos. These were just some of the things which helped make the 1984-85 Christmas Formal truly an evening meant to be remembered.

The Basketball Homecoming celebration was as exciting and enjoyable as the many celebrated courts at Sierra Vista High School. The celebration was filled with everlasting, fond memories for the lucky girls who were nominated to reign over the marvelous extravaganza. This was perhaps one of the most exciting experiences in their lives.

Filled with tradition and pride, the Basketball Homecoming celebration was an event of unforgettable pageantry. As Queen Sylvia Valdez put it, "The moment was unforgettable. There was just no word to describe the feelings I felt. It was just beautiful."

Dance . . . "A Day at the Carnival"

The gym was transformed from a mere place where athletes competed to a streamer-adorned and ballon-filled place in one night. The place was complemented with the Marriage and Carnation booths. The refreshment booth, which served candy apples, perfectly set the mood for a carnival.

Not so surprising, for this was the "Day at the Carnival," which was the Sadie Hawkins theme. As the "Hawkinites" danced the night away, the Sadies Court was introduced. The nominees were Jorge Perez, Marciano Ramos, Wade Varela, Carlos Aispuro, Ralph Diaz, Rudy Espinoza, Esvin Galeano, Vince Pacheco, Jon Pagsanhan, Gilbert Alonzo, Winson Hsieh, and Isidro Miramontes.

The 1985 winner was King Winson Hsieh and his court included Junior Prince Vincent Pacheco, Sophomore Prince Carlos Aispuro, and Freshman Prince Jorge Perez.

Athletic activities were an essential part of our school activities. Most of the events and happenings on campus were somehow involved with sports. Participating in the pep rallies, brunch time activities, and homecoming dances gave us a chance to show our school pride and enthusiasm.

Competing to make the team or earning a varsity letter brought out a sense of belonging and achievement to the athlete. The coaches also played an important role in the success of the S.V.H.S. Athletic Program. Their high standards of dedication and commitment instilled stern discipline and team morale in their athletes. The coaches' and athletes' constant drive to put out their best proved that each individual was a key ingredient to the team. In short, the athletes' true talents and characters were revealed in competition as they strived for a successful goal.

With Unity, We Achieve the Unexpected

The 1984-85 football season for the Dons was successful and exciting to all their supporters. They have achieved the unexpected—making the CIF play-offs for the first time in Sierra Vista High School's history. One of the key factors to the success was its unity. Ever since the beginning of the season, players were friendly to each other. The players were like one huge family. Also, the coaching staffs were like the players' fathers. The coaches gave the players encouragement, understanding their problems and cared for them. It was hard to believe that a football team with a bunch of wild guys could be a family. It really started when one of the players decided to share his prayers to the team about his goal. Apparently all the players decided to have prayers to God after every practice and game. With this special closeness, the Dons were able to win many of their ball games that enabled them a play-off position.

The young aggressive, freshman football team had a lot of talented players that created a superior football team. Unfortunately for the lack of experience, they only won one game. However, they were not the type that would submit to defeat. Winning attitudes were accumulating and bad experiences are out.

Cross-Country

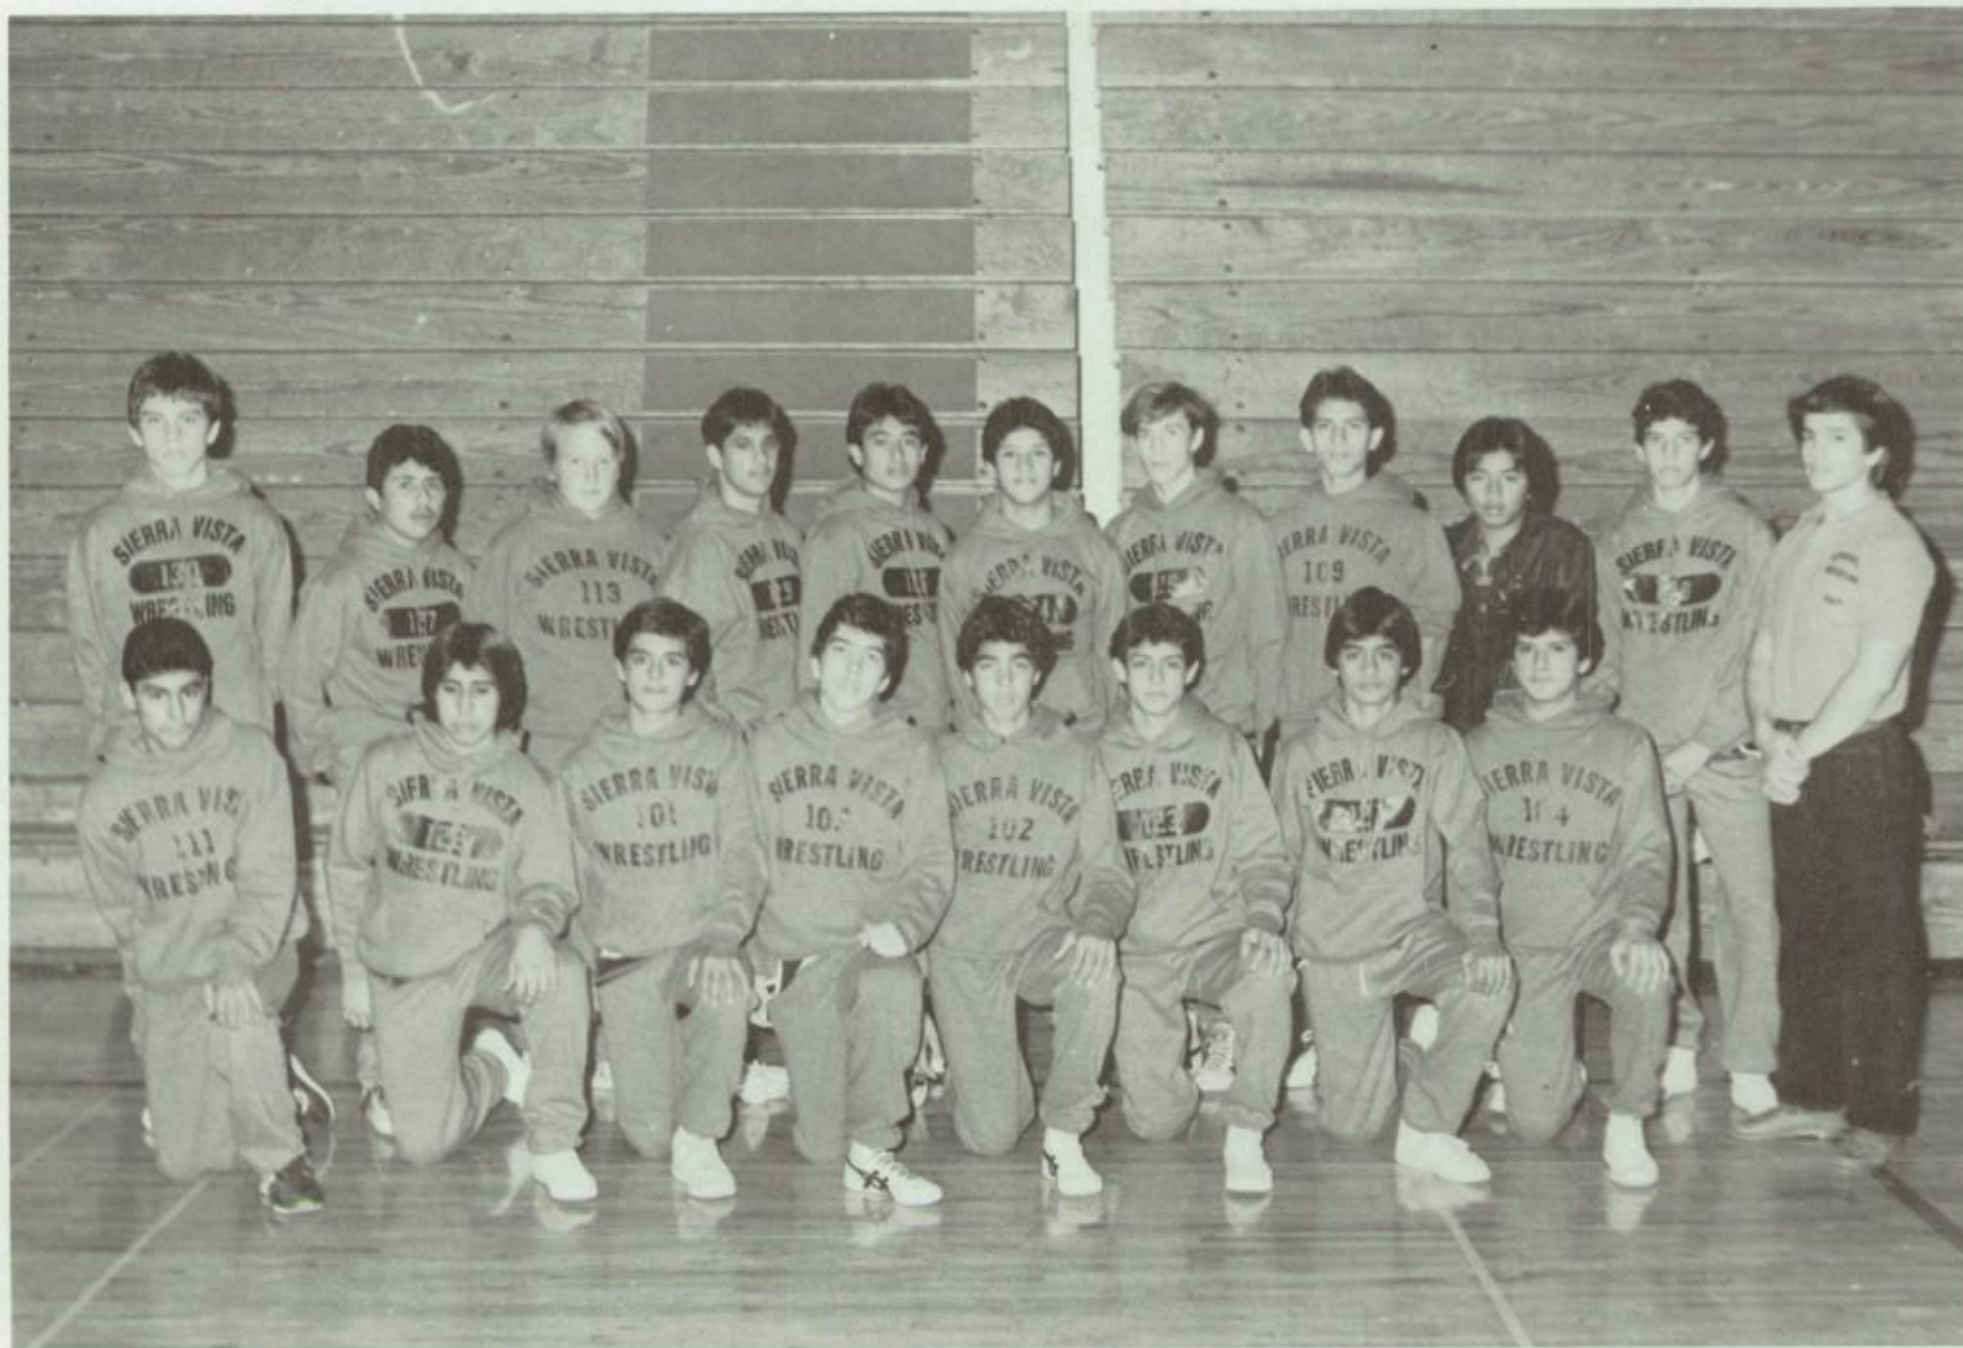

The Cross-Country team was young and inexperienced, proven by the fact that only three of the eleven boy's runners ran last year. Back again were Henry Ursulo (Jr.) and Raoul Caragao (Soph.) on the varsity, 2nd and 3rd men on the roster, followed by newcomers Jesus Camargo (Soph.) 4th and Alex Garcia (Sr.) 5th, but the biggest surprise of the year was an import. Huh? The top runner was an exchange student from Japan. His name was Masayuki Hirata (Sr.) 1st. He arrived in the USA just a couple of weeks before school started. Hirata's time of 17:36 was the best on the team and earned him MVP honors. He was quite a pleasant surprise, plus he never missed a practice (he hadn't had time to pick up bad habits). Top freshman was Tony Poindexter. Another promising runner was Lorraine Ledesma (Soph.), who was also a novice. And of course there was Tracy Flock (The Flock) in her 4th consecutive X-Country season finishing it up with the League Championship in hand and a fine showing in CIF Finals.

Wrestling

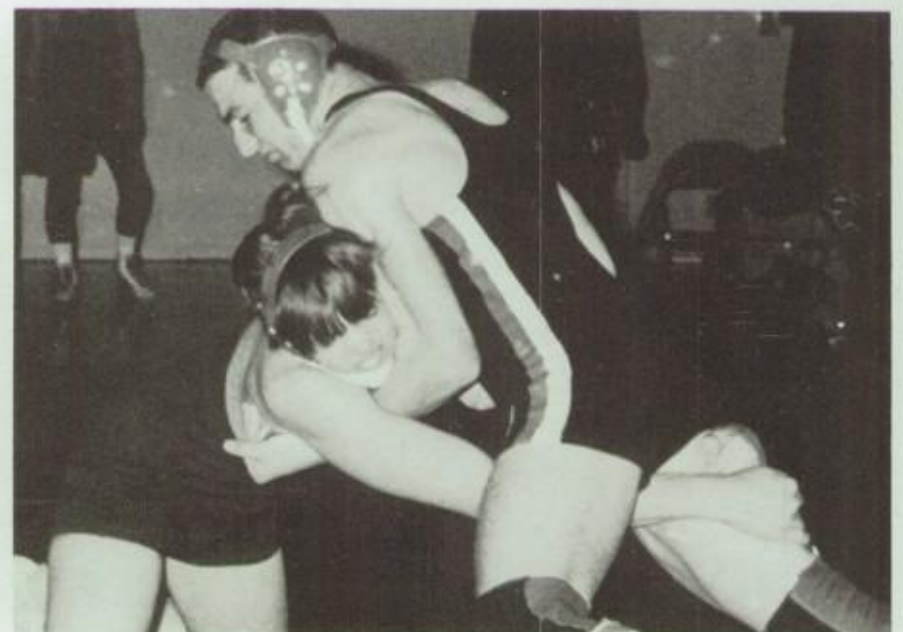

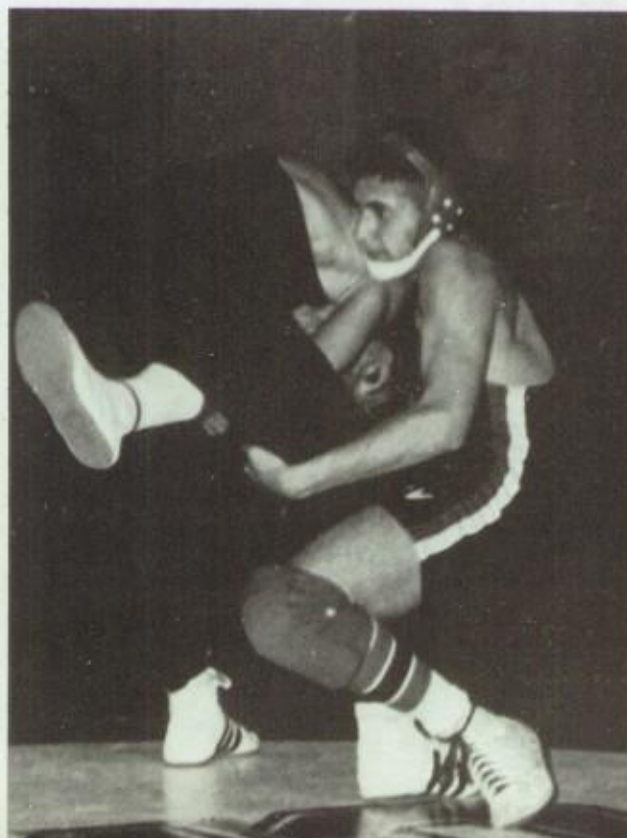

Obsessed With Success

The long, hard, sweating practices led the Dons wrestlers to another undefeated league title. They performed excellently in every match and tournament. The Dons had a new coach who led them to 3rd place in the CIF 1A division. Sierra Vista had five very good years and winning became almost an obsession for all the Dons wrestlers.

Wrestling was one of the most rugged sports in high school. Those wrestlers who were able to overcome the physical and mental work-outs had an excellent opportunity for success both in the sport and the future.

The Varsity Volleyball team gave their all and did their best during tournaments. Although the team only had one victory, they worked hard and strove to prove that even though they were not victorious throughout the year, they still tried their best and worked as a team.

S.V. go, fight, WIN!!!

Let's see who could get it!!

We need to grow a little.

This one better go over or else!

Don't argue with me!

This is going over!

I've got it.

Where did it go?

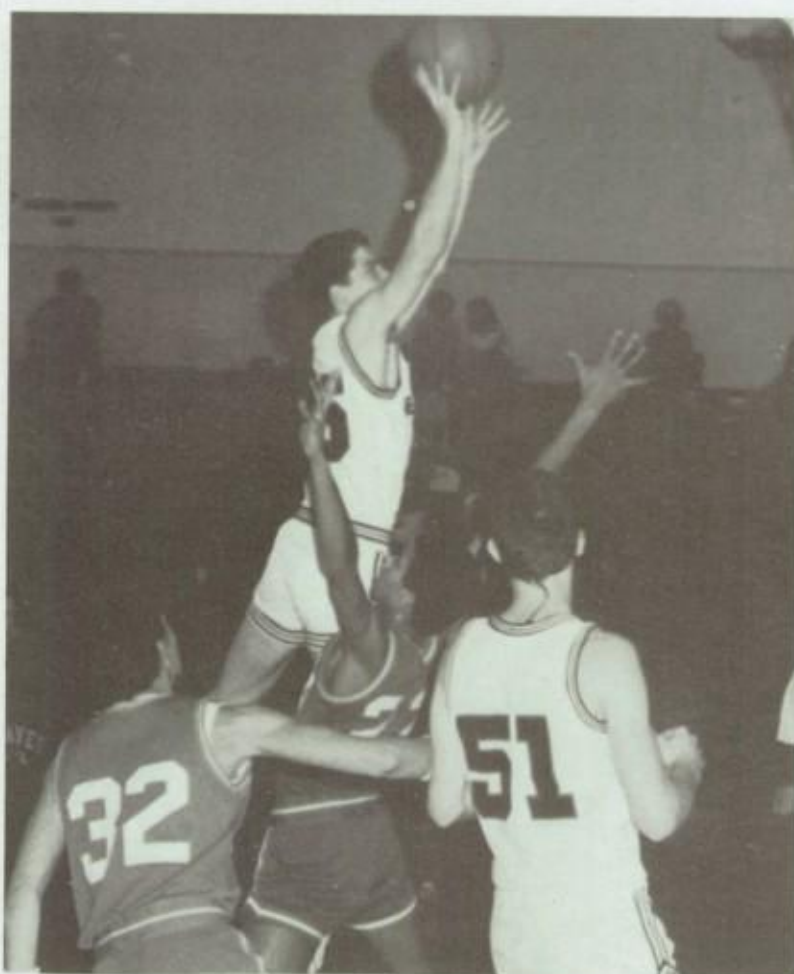

I'm going to make them look silly.

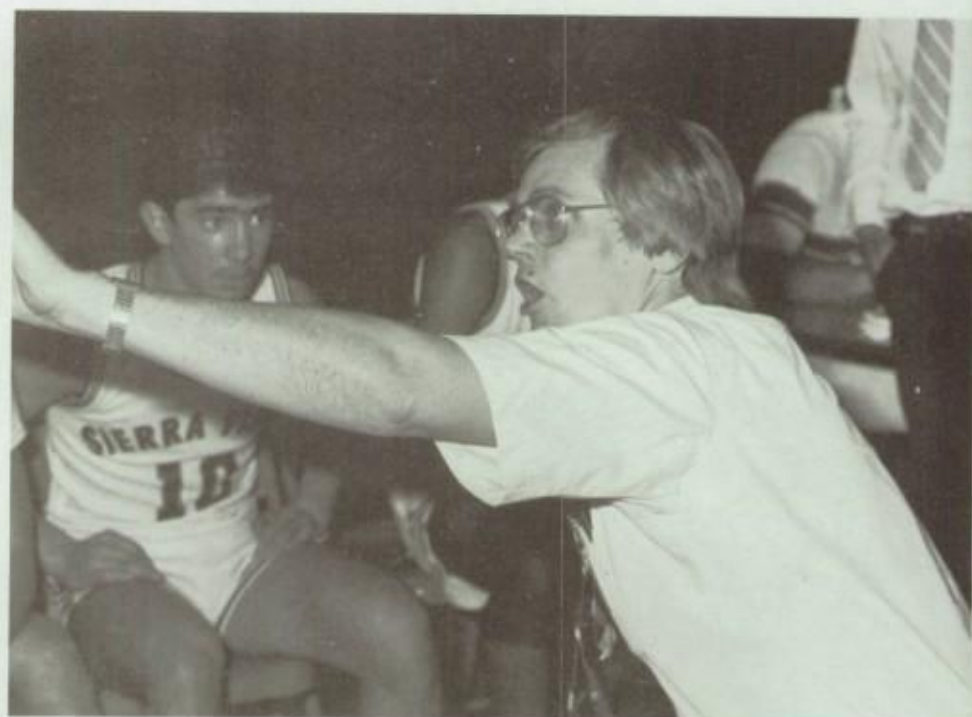

Boys' Varsity Basketball

Back row: Victor Almaraz, Joe Wang, Zubin Plascencia (capt.), Gilbert Morales, Coach Prehn. Front row: Horacio Valdez, Greg Hernandez, Ed Pagsanhan, Shawn Wilson (Co-Capt.), Ken Smith.

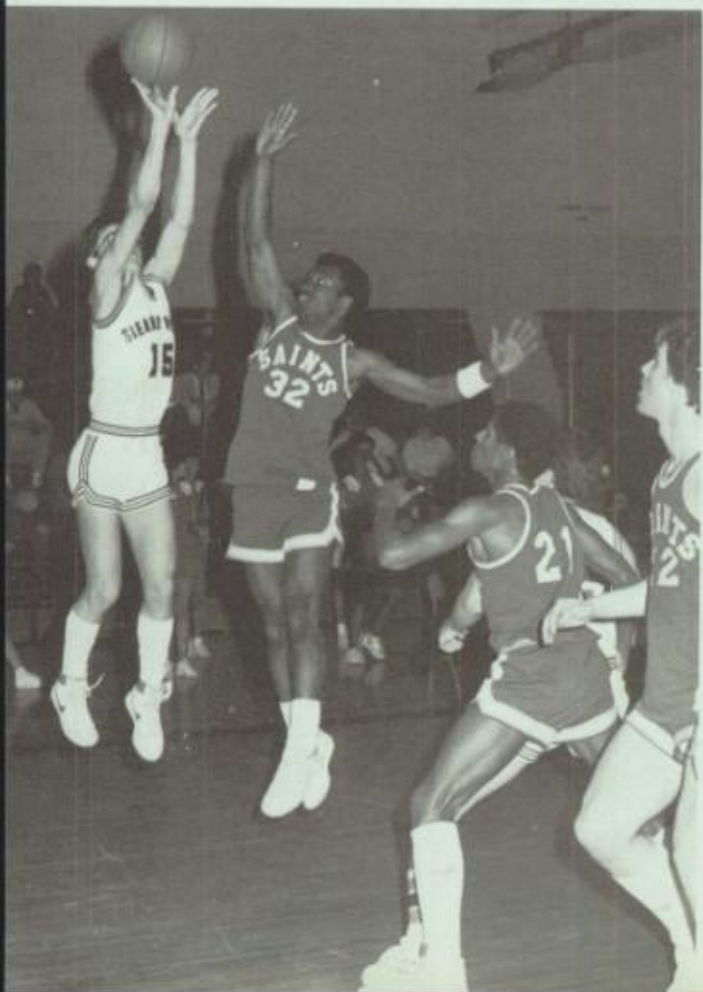

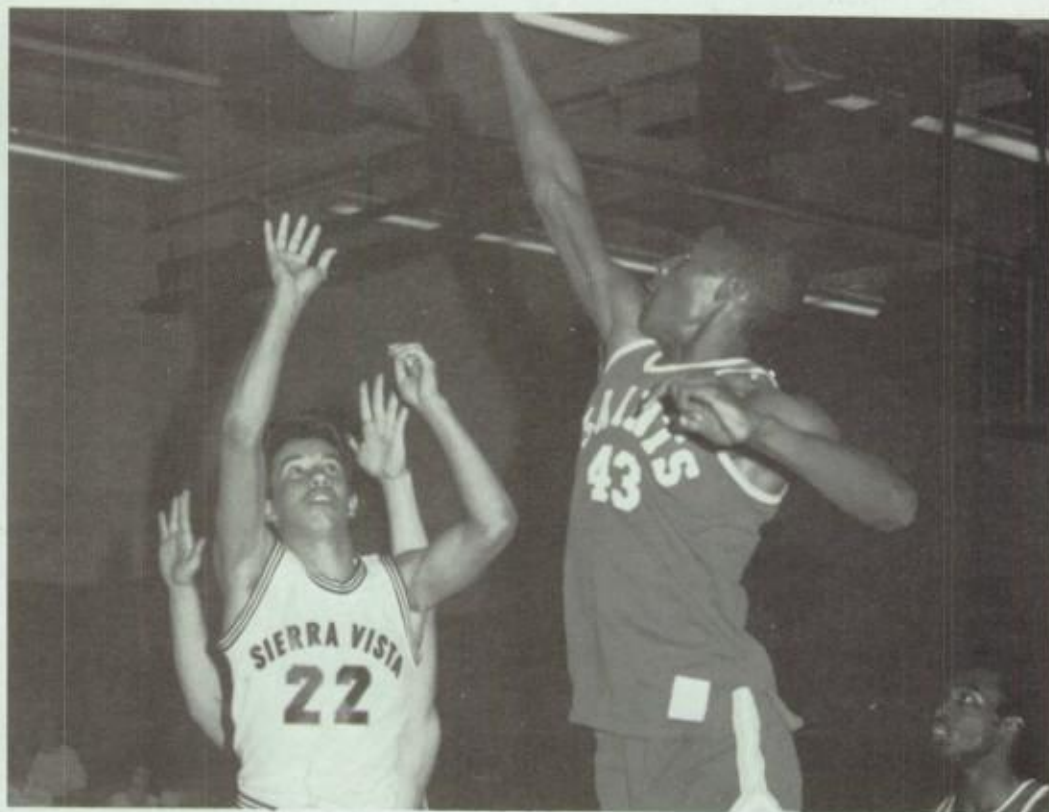

Shawn Wilson turns in an all-League performance vs cross-town rival Baldwin Park.

Coach Prehn emphasizes the game plan during a time out.

Even though the Dons showed minimun success with their overall record, 8 wins-13 losses, the Varsity Squad possessed more talent than was shown. The Dons were seeded to win the Montview League Title, along with 2 other teams at the start of the season. Though most of their games were lost by close margins midway through the season, the Dons turned in a great 2nd half of league play to end the 1984-85 season.

Zubin Plasencia goes on the offensive drive.

Gilbert Morales goes up aggressively for a lay-up.

Horacio Valdez concentrates on the game.

Ken Smith leaps high for a jump ball.

Isidro Miramontes with a jump-shot from the baseline.

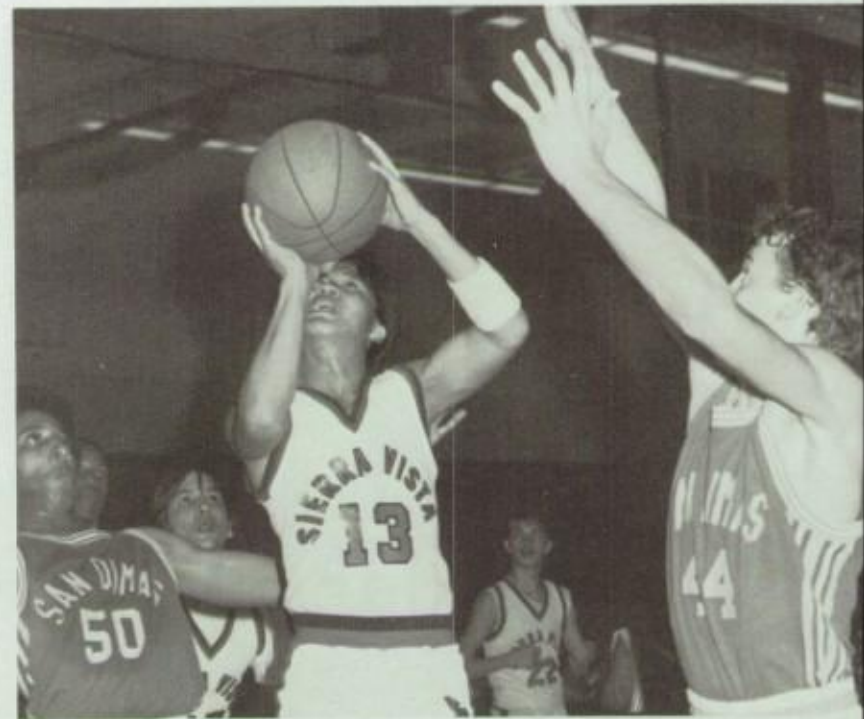

Victor Almaraz connects with a successful shot.

Back row: Irwin Pascua, Anthony Roehl, Mario Virgen, Vince "Vito" Pacheco, Dennis Escobedo, Terry Amerio, Jon Pagsanhan.

The Junior Varsity Squad performed competitively and with determination throughout the season. Their desire and constant hustle helped them defeat most of the bigger and higher ranked teams in their league. They overcame their mistakes and won several come-from-behind games late into the season. As the J.V. roster continue to develop their talents, they displayed some promising players to be potential let-terms in the years to come.

Jon Pagsanhan scores between two defenders.

Coach Caragao prepares to signal instructions to his players.

Vince Pacheco scores in a lay-up.

Striving for Success

The frosh team showed a tremendous amount of improvement from the beginning of the season to the end. Inconsistency, though, was their biggest problem. Making the same mistakes repeatedly proved to be their weakness in the games that they lost. They ended the league schedule with a record of 9 wins and 5 losses which earned them 3rd place in the Montview League. The team showed high potential to help improve the overall basketball program at S.V.H.S. Coach Moorman later comments, "This freshman team was one of the hardest working teams I've ever coached."

CIF 85 Football

On Friday night, 9/9/84, the S.V. DONS defeated Charter Oak H.S. to clinch a spot in the C.I.F. play-offs. The team played a dominate game in front of a large supportive, and enthusiastic crowd. It was a memorable night for the coaches and the players. But it was an extra-special night for the seniors on the team. The Dons accomplished a first in their football program by participating in C.I.F. competition!!

CIF Tracy

The most significant memory will be the one left by S.V.'s own queen of the road, Tracy Flock. It will be some time (hopefully not too long), before any athlete (boy or girl) can match what she accomplished this past season. She placed 2nd at the prestigious MSAC Invitational (the nation's largest!) and then after losing only 1 league race, too took first place at League Finals. In four cross-country seasons, she finished 2nd as a freshman, 3rd as a sophomore, 2nd as a junior, and finally the coveted Montview League Championship! No one at S.V. has as much as ever placed at League Finals, let alone take the championship! After that came CIF. In Tracy's race, after 1 mile she was in second place by inches, dropped to third at the second mile and finally finished, third, only 5 seconds away from the winner. Tracy became the only girl in her league's and school's history to qualify TWICE for CIF Finals. Going into the race, she was in the top 10 in CIF. We are talking about over 70 schools and 400 runners. On a muddy, slippery course, Tracy finished 16th (Last year she finished 14th). This ended years of determination, dedication, and pride. Years of running alone, in the rain, in sub 50 degree

It's time for a celebration.

C.I.F.: We finally did it!!!

Let's see some INTENSITY on the field, guys.

Carlos Perez 101 L.B. sixth place

Sierra Vista High School Wrestling Team took third place in the C.I.F. 1A division tournament.

weather, 6 am workouts, and all types of sacrifices. Several colleges have made inquiries about Tracy early in the year. In the Spring, Tracy defended her two other titles. Last year Tracy also won two Montview League Championships; one in the Mile and 2-Mile events. Tisk, tisk, the hassles of being a champion. Way to go Running Red!!

Dedication

The entire yearbook staff takes great pride and honor in dedicating the 1984-85 Conquistador annual to Mrs. Freya Oliver, who voluntarily gave us the assistance and drive which we were much in need of. Mrs. Oliver unselfishly devoted a large amount of her time and effort into helping us make this annual one of the best this school ever had.

When Mrs. Nyhagen took a leave of absence to nurse a knee injury, the entire staff was left to "mind the store" on their own. Despite the fact that we met the first and second deadlines with "flying colors" we were still in great need of someone to help us reach our goal of creating the best annual ever. And luckily for us, Mrs. Oliver recognized this need and offered us a helping hand. Thanks to her dedication and determination, she gave us the guidance which we all desperately sought. And once again, we'd like to extend our warmest gratitude and thanks to Mrs. Freya Oliver. Mrs. Oliver, the yearbook staff sincerely dedicates this annual to you.

Thank you very much,
From the entire staff of the Conquistador Annual.

THE BEST OF TIMES ...

...EIGHT-FIVE

THE WORST OF TIMES

The year was filled with happy memories as well as moments we were willing to forget. For some, it was a year when goals were achieved and new ones were set. To others, it was a year of setbacks and disappointments.

Next year, the majority of the students would once again be returning to Sierra Vista to familiar friends and teachers. Yet, to the graduating class of 1985, this was the last road into the real world. The seniors would soon part from their friends and the niches they had called home for the past four years in order to start a new life of independence. Still, on the other side of the road where the seniors stood four years before, a new group of students would be beginning a new life at Sierra Vista. New faces would once again fill the campus, yet old familiar friends would be gone.

So, as the school year ended students looked onward into the future as well as contemplated of the past. And whatever memories they acquired, good or bad, the year of 1985 will surely be remembered.

Tracy: "Sure, you guys can have my autograph!"

Diane: "Hey, that looks pretty good, Maria."

Jeff: "What's the matter? Haven't you seen a guy eat before?"

Tweety: "Why did everybody turn their back on me?"

1. Olivia: "Now do we look good or what?"

2. Gill: "Hey, what's going on here?"

3. Lydia: Is that Matt and Margarito gossiping?

Gone,
dreams of the past,
gone with a love that moved too fast.
Gone,
bright, shiny days,
gone in a young and restless haze.
Why did we love, then run away?
So little time, so much left to say,
and now it's gone.
Young and restless friend,
you'll never pass this way again.
So drink the summer wine,
reach for the stars while you have time,
Your restless dreams will lead the way.
So dream your dreams and live for each day
while you are young.

Hey Chuck It's been a great year at times
& I'm glad it's over I really can't wait till our Senior year it's gonna be bitchen? I'm real glad we are close friends I sure hope it stays that way forever. You have been a great friend. I hope that it will stay that way forever. I hope that next year will be a better year & a better year book.
Sorry about the color of the pen but I didn't have a blue pen well the bell rang & I will continue later ok. Well I'm back a couple days later so Kellie chick how do you think next year will be like. well I don't have to say cause some people took my spot
It really PISSES me off
I'm going to go now & talk to Kellie, you well hope you have a great summer stay cool chick & see you later.

To: Kellie

A Real nice
Person even tho
we really didn't get to know each other
very well nice knowing you and I hope I see you next year and have a nice summer and be good
